Coal Barons Balk; Illinois Will Fix Prices

OPERATORS REFUSE TO CO-OPERATE TO ESTABLISH RELIEF

Repudiate Agreement and Governor's
Coal Controller Will Fix Prices
and Mines May Be Seized.

LOWDEN EXPECTS BARONS TO COMPLY

Chicago, Aug. 17.—After a declaration by a representative of the Illinois coal operators that they had concluded not to co-operate, Justice Orrin N. Carter, state coal controller, today began hearings with a view to fixing reasonable prices.

Attorney Ralph Crews, for the operators, reviewed the situation, including steps taken for federal control and the Illinois strike situation and concluded with the statement that in view of these facts that the operators had concluded not to co-operate.

Levy Mayer, chairman of the law and legislation committee of the Illinois state council of defense, asserted that the operators had repudiated their agreement. Justice Carter said: "I shall not comment upon the action of the operators. We will proceed with the hearing and in the end I will fix prices."

As originally contemplated, a committee of the operators would have been empowered to bind the coal producers to abide by any price fixed by the controller. At a meeting a week ago a committee of operators agreed to be bound, but it speedily developed that they could not control the rank and file. "I am informed," Governor Lowden said, "that the coal operators assembled in Chicago intended to violate their agreement. I have advised Justice Carter to proceed with the hearing to fix fair maximum prices for Illinois. When these are fixed I shall expect the operators to comply."

Among the friends of the governor it was said he is determined to seize the mines if the operators remain obdurate. Committees were present at the hearing.

Summary of the Day's War News

The Germans made violent and repeated efforts last night to regain important positions recently wrested from them by the French and British. They gained some small advantages on the Verdun front, otherwise the only result of their attacks was to add to the heavy losses which they have sustained in their fierce local offensive operations of late.

The British report three counter attacks against their new lines near Loos. At the second effort the Germans gained slight successes at points, but were driven back again as the third assault failed to shake the British defense. Heavy artillery fighting is reported in the Ypres sector where the British after gaining ground in yesterday's attack on a nine mile front were finally pressed back.

The attacks on the French were made at widely separated points. In Belgium the Germans attempted to capture the ground taken by the

FRENCH DENY GUNS FIRED ST. QUENTIN FAMOUS CATHEDRAL

French Front in France, Aug. 17.—The fire in the St. Quentin cathedral was first observed about 6 o'clock Wednesday night by sentinels. They were startled to see flames breaking from the famous cathedral and soon the entire structure was ablaze. The fire was caused by a shell which fell on the roof of the cathedral.

TIME BOMBS SINK SHIPS

Five Vessels Overdue at Pacific Port Given Up for Lost.

THREE OF MISSING SHIPS AMERICAN

Belief is Firm That They
Have Been Destroyed by Enemy Agents.

A Pacific Port, Aug. 17.—Five ships, three American, one British and one Japanese, are overdue at this port, and have been practically given up by their owners and agents.

Mariners say they believe the vessels have been destroyed by time bombs placed in the cargoes by enemy agents. This theory was strengthened today when a sailor employed near this port told of having seen fragile bottles containing acid taken from cargo powder cases where they had been placed in such a manner that the breaking of the bottles would have ignited the powder.

The overdue vessels are the American schooner Winslow, American sailing ship R. C. Slade, the American schooner Betuga, the Japanese freighter Koto Hira, and the British freighter Wairuna.

GERMAN CLAIMS PADDED.

Paris, Aug. 17.—The German official report of merchant ships sunk by submarines is exaggerated 40 per cent. according to the results of the conference of admirals of allied navies which was held at Paris July 25.

TO AID FOOD SURVEY.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Clarence Outley, of College Station, Tex., and Raymond A. Pearson, of Ames, Iowa, were nominated today by President Wilson to be assistant secretaries of agriculture under provisions of the food survey law.

"YES, RUSSIA WILL FIGHT!"

So Says Charles Edward Russell in His First Article After His Return from Russia With the Root Commission—The Greatest Danger Russia Has to Face is Peace Talk in the United States.

CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL, famous writer for the Daily Sentinel has spent three months in Russia as a member of the American commission, to the new Russian government, which was headed by Eilhu Root. His opportunities for observation and investigation of Russian conditions were unparalleled, as all the resources of the provisional government were placed at his disposal. The commission has just returned to this country, and Russell, after closing his immediate official business, has started to write the truth about Russia. His first article is printed today; watch for others.

BY CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL.
(Copyright, 1917, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Will Russia fight?

Of the thousands of eager questions plumped at the Root commission, of which I was a member, since it came back to American soil, this has outnumbered all the others together.

Will Russia fight?

Yes! Russia will fight! She will fight with courage, skill, persistence and success. She will put up a strictly first class article of fight and she will win with it.

Provided only that she gets any kind of a fair chance and that the

Charles Edward Russell

United States of America will let her fight.

I find that millions of us seem to have this whole Russian business wrong end to. We think, for instance, that if Russia is not now pushing the war vigorously the reason is that the Russians have a great broad streak of yellow in them—yellow and not much else.

This is the most monstrous fake and lie that was ever believed by one name.

Former Autocrat Wanted to

Petrograd, Aug. 17.—Further details are published concerning the removal of Nicholas Romanoff from the former imperial palace at Tsarskoe Selo. When the train which was to carry the former emperor arrived it bore prominent placards, and contained one armored car and on the platform of each car were four soldiers with fixed bayonets. The former emperor at the last moment, says one newspaper, begged to be allowed to reside in the Crimea, but this was refused.

As the train pulled out the soldiers shouted derisively at the former ruler of Russia. The new location of the prisoners remains a mystery but the impression grows that it will be Siberia. The investigation, the organ of the council of workmen and soldiers' delegates, protests against the secrecy surrounding the former emperor's removal. It says it indicates the government's distrust of the people and the insecurity of the revolution.

At Tsarskoe Selo the palace is being overhauled. The rooms occupied by Nicholas have been sealed up. It is said that

BERNSTORFF AS AMBASSADOR TO CONSTANTINOPLE

Berlin, Aug. 15.—(Via London.)—Aug. 17.—The appointment of Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, as German ambassador at Constantinople, is foretold. Count von Bernstorff arrived in Berlin today and has been in conference with Imperial Chancellor Michaelis.

The former ambassador at Washington, is well acquainted with conditions in Turkey and the Balkans. His first diplomatic assignment was as an embassy attaché in Constantinople thirty years ago. Later he was secretary of the legation at Belgrade, and he has been German consul general in Egypt.

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Wilson and Secretary Lansing soon will begin a series of important conferences preliminary to the response to be made to Pope Benedict's peace proposals.

Before the communication goes forward the views of the entente governments will be ascertained. This necessarily will take some time owing to delay in transmitting messages by cable. The pontiff's peace note, the text of which reached the state department by cable from the London foreign office late yesterday, is now before the president. He probably will give it close study before taking up the subject with Secretary Lansing.

In official and diplomatic circles here today Premier Lloyd George's speech was regarded as voicing the

DEPARTMENT OF WAR GIVES NEW LIFE TO SALOON

Washington, Aug. 17.—The war department has modified the order prohibiting a saloon or bar within half a mile of a military camp so as not to be effective where purely temporary camps are concerned.

The modification was caused by a situation in Kansas City, where many saloons and leading hotel bars in the city were closed because some troops were being mobilized in convention hall.

Under the new ruling such temporary camps are exempted from the ban.

TROOPS MAY BE SENT WEST FOR STRIKE SERVICE

Washington Government Will Employ
Force to Keep Big War Industries

EXTREME MEASURES FOR I. W. W. BROOD

Washington, Aug. 17.—Sending troops to Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho to keep war industries moving and to check disorders, is regarded by officials as a possibility in the near future should the threatened I. W. W. strike attain serious proportion and the civil authorities, state and federal, in the affected area, be unable to meet the situation adequately.

The departments of justice and labor, the board of mediation and conciliation, the food administration and other government agencies were studying with some apprehension today the situation in the northwest and were prepared, it was said, to take immediate steps to meet any development.

Secretary Wilson, of the labor department, returning to Washington after an absence of several days, received reports on the situation and began to determine if the services of his department could be utilized in avoiding the threatened strike. Conciliators of the department already are in the districts affected. The food administration is concerned with reports that the strike might retard harvesting and that damage had been done to fruit and vegetables in California which are needed for canning. The board of mediation and conciliation while without direct representation in the territory affected is prepared to act quickly in case the threatened strike should result in interruption to train service. Department of justice investigators are inclined to view the situation with some apprehension and United States district attorney in the four districts mentioned are authorized to act quickly in case of disorder. So far as the department of justice is concerned only an overt act can result in action.

Officials unite in saying there will be no half measures by the government with persons attempting to hinder industries essential to prosecuting the war. Extreme measures, it was said, would be resorted to without hesitation and quickly. In view of the nature of the demands made by the I. W. W., including the release of all members of its organization at present in prison in the four states, it was thought likely that the strike would be called. The demand is regarded by officials here as preposterous, and one that could not possibly be acceded to.

CHASING THE I. W. W.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 17.—Declaring their belief that Industrial Workers of the World are responsible for recurring labor difficulties at the plant of the Great Lakes Engineering works, near River Rouge, a suburb, authorities of that village have issued notice that every member of the organization must leave immediately. Those who fail to obey the order, it was announced, will be rounded up and placed in jail.

Three strikes have been called and adjusted in the ship yards in the last ten days. Although the company recently granted a general increase of Copenhagen, Aug. 17.—The German government's attitude on so important a matter as the peace proposal of Pope Benedict can only be made known after the most careful deliberation, particularly as its decision can only be taken in full accord with German allies. A statement to this effect has been communicated by the German foreign office to the German press.

A TRUE RESTORATION.

Rome, Aug. 17.—"The pope's peace proposals are true restoration in the sense of Lloyd George's last speech and constitute a peace as outlined by President Wilson while they also correspond to peace without annexations or indemnities supported in other quarters," says the Corriere d'Italia, the semi-official organ of the Vatican.

The paper adds that the pope's note does not propose to return to the status quo and suggests the restoration of "the old kingdom of Poland" as it was before being dismembered by the three empires.

RELIEF DISTRIBUTES OVER $1,800,000

Pennsylvania Benefit Association Breaks Record in Semi-Annual Payments

In the first six months of 1917 the relief funds of the Pennsylvania railroad system lines both east and west of Pittsburgh paid a sum of $1,856,044 to employees and their families in death and disability benefits.

The relief fund of the lines east of Pittsburgh was established Feb. 15, 1886, and altogether has paid to members and their families $35,857,762 in benefits.

The payments made by the relief fund of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh during the first six months of 1917 amounted to $559,973, of which $187,513 was for death benefits and $372,460 for disability by sickness or otherwise.

Since the fund was established on the lines west, July 1, 1889, it has paid out to members and their families benefits totaling $13,694,721.

The report shows that on July 1, 1917, there were in the service of the directly operated lines of the Pennsylvania system, east and west of Pittsburgh, 228,571 employees, of whom 196,599 were members of the relief fund.

YEAR BEGINS SEPTEMBER 1.

The new year of the Electro-Technic club will begin September 1, and that date will mark the inauguration of a membership campaign which will eclipse in energy and probably in results anything the club has yet undertaken in that line. The campaign will be conducted in part at least on lines similar to the membership campaign last year. There will be two captains, who will select their aids from among the most active members of the club. Fred Duryee is chairman of the membership committee.

GOING TO THE ENCAMPMENT.

Tomorrow night some of the veterans of the war of the rebellion will leave for Boston to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R. The travel there is light this year and those who have to buy tickets will get up full fare for them, for the railroads are not making special rates. One party from Fort Wayne will consist of Hon. S. M. Hench, Joseph Kiley, Capt. S. S. Kelker, John Koontz, Louis Hoopengartner and Joseph Corlette, which will leave tomorrow.

TO HAVE TWO WEEKS OUTING.

General Foreman E. B. Hughes, of the Pennsylvania round house, and Machinist A. R. Morell, of the Pennsylvania tool room, have taken a two weeks' leave on the Rathenbergtown, Spring Beach, Rome City, and will take their families there tomorrow. They anticipate a good deal of pleasure in fishing, as each is an expert in that line. During the absence of Mr. Hughes, Assistant Foreman John E. Hebert will have charge of affairs at the round house.

URBAN ARNOLD PROMOTED.

A post card from Urban Arnold, who is at Fort Benjamin Harrison, brought greetings to his former associates in the Pennsylvania trainmaster's office this morning; also the information that Mr. Arnold had been promoted from private to corporal in the medical department. He enlisted in the regular army May 3 and has been at the training camps since. He writes that he expects to go to France in two months.

GOES TO JOIN HIS FAMILY.

General Manager F. S. Hunting, of the General Electric works, left this afternoon, over the Pennsylvania, for Crawford House, N. H., to join his family and enjoy two weeks of rest. The family have been at the resort for some time and they will return to Fort Wayne with Mr. Hunting. Crawford House, N. H., is located in the White Mountains and is quite a famous summer resort.

TO DAKOTA FOR HEALTH.

Leonard Newport, of the O. K. machine shop, left yesterday for South Dakota, expecting to stay two or three months if he finds the climate and other conditions congenial. Mr. Newport has been ailing for some time and goes west in the hopes of receiving physical benefits.

SPECIAL CAR FROM TERRE HAUTE.

The train company will send a special car from Terre Haute today to bring the Fort Wayne people who had been at St. Mary's of the Woods home. There are upwards of fifty in the party and the car will make exceptionally fast time, cutting out all stops at unimportant stations. The car will arrive here at 5:30 o'clock this evening.

HAD HIS LEG BRUISED.

While handling a piece of metal at one of the steam hammers at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop yesterday, the handle of the tongs flew around and delivered a fierce blow on the leg of Hammersmith Edgar E. Szink. No bones were broken, but the leg was bruised and sprained and Mr. Szink will be unable to work for a few days.

MACHINIST PAINFULLY HURT.

When the overalls worn by Machinist E. C. Rehling, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, caught in the air motor he was operating the limb was drawn against the rapidly revolving piece and the flesh bruised and the leg sprained. The garment gave way, releasing Mr. Rehling before any more serious injury was sustained.

C. H. Matson, assistant to Factory Superintendent A. E. Barnes, of the General Electric works, and Henry Stabthut, foreman of the maintenance department of the factory, went to Adams lake yesterday. They will divide the time between hunting squirrels and fishing, in company with D. P. McDonald, who went there last Monday.

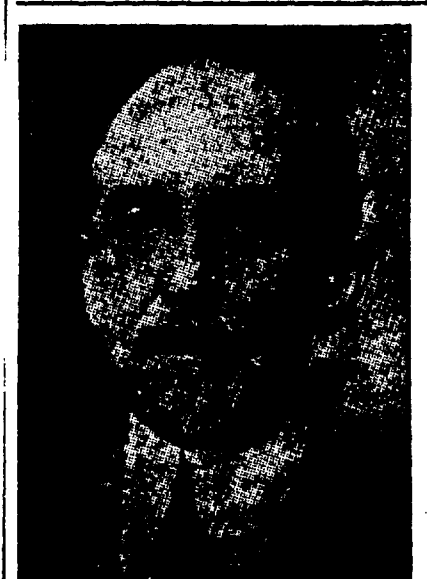

Raymond Hoffman, foreman of the testing department of the General Electric works, is proud of the patriotic spirit that has prevailed in that department. Fifteen of the employees of the department have answered the call of the government and this is a pretty big per cent of the whole. Of course, as rapidly as possible the vacancies arising out of enlistment have been filled, but still the department is more or less crippled and will soon be more crippled, for there are men who have been accepted and are awaiting a call to the colors. There are less than fifty on the department pay roll.

DEATH DUE TO FALL DOWN THE STAIRS

J. H. P. Hughart Was Visiting His Brother When Accident Happened.

The death of the late President J. H. P. Hughart, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad company, was due to paralysis, following a fall downstairs.

at his brother's home, which injured his spine, at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night. He was taken to the Blodgett hospital, where death occurred Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Hughart and daughter, Miss Isabel Hughart, were at Nantuxet Island, Mass., at the time the accident occurred and were unable to reach Grand Rapids before Mr. Hughart died.

Mr. Hughart is survived by the widow and four children—J. H. P. Hughart, Jr., a cadet at Annapolis; W. Oden Hughart III, Miss Polly Hughart and Miss Isabel Hughart, besides two brothers, William O. Hughart, Jr., and Oliver O. P. Hughart, of Porto Rico, now in New York, and two sisters, Mrs. W. S. Howard and Mrs. George H. Penrose, wife of Col. Penrose, of Washington.

Mr. Hughart was born in Pittsburg, December 1, 1854, his parents being Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hughart. The father was a prominent member of the road. The following year he moved his family to that city, where J. H. P. Hughart began his railway career as his father's secretary. Later he was paymaster, then secretary of the company and assistant to his father and upon the latter's death in 1899 he was made general manager. Three years ago he was elected president.

In recent years he was in ill health and the active management of the road devolved upon William B. Wood, while Mr. Hughart retained the executive office and membership on the board.

Funeral Saturday Afternoon. Local officials of the G. R. & I. received notice this morning that the funeral services of the late President Hughart would be held at the home of the brother, W. O. Hughart, in Grand Rapids, at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It is presumed that the remains will be taken to Pittsburg for interment, but no information on that point was given in the notice concerning the funeral services. Supt. B. H. Hudson is just recovering from a severe illness and will not be able to attend the funeral services. Division officials who will go to Grand Rapids Saturday morning on train No. 11 for that purpose are Division Engineer R. G. Jones, Trainmaster F. S. Fox, Division Operator J. F. Betts, Road Foreman of Engines A. L. Lophshire, Master Carpenter H. M. Large and Chief Clerk C. H. Tonsing. Some of the Pennsylvania division officials, who knew and admired Mr. Hughart, will also attend the funeral.

FEDERAL REGULATION OF COAL.

The most interesting development of the conference of state councils of defense, in Chicago, Thursday, was the announcement it elicited that the federal government purposes to regulate production, distribution and prices. Control of fuel is provided for in the food bill, lately passed by congress, and the federal trade commission has definite authority to act. It was brought out at the Chicago conference that several of the states now looked to for procedures against coal operators are holding back in expectation of federal action. Indiana is one of them. Governor Goodrich laying well-considered plans for calling the Indiana legislature in special session to consider the coal situation among other concerns of emergence due to the war, but it is known that he has hoped for federal action which would relieve this commonwealth from necessity to pursue rigorous measures with the coal operators in the state.

The course of events in Illinois, promising enough at the outset a few days ago, has not been such as to encourage the governors of other states to invite the confidence of the coal barons. Governor Lowden proclaimed a resolute purpose to seize the mines if there were no acceptable alternative. He was assured by able counsel in the law that he had ample authority to take this step. Then he got concessions and assurances from the mine operators. He appointed an eminent jurist state fuel director and matters appeared to be going well toward a solution of the coal problem. But while the several state councils of defense were holding their conference it transpired that the mine barons were once more taking the bit in their teeth and refusing to be either led or driven. It has been repeatedly asserted that there is ample authority in Indiana law for state control of the mines, but it is not likely that the legal machinery for accomplishing this can be set up without some specific statutory provisions that the legislature must first provide. And even with that reinforcement, which can be had only through a special session of the general assembly, there doubtless would ensue a stubborn fight by the mine operators before they could be brought to relinquish control to the state.

Federal regulation in the fuel matter will be much better and indeed may well be thought the only effectual expedient. State control of Indiana mines will not solve the entire mass of the state's fuel problems. Unless the states that produce coal can proceed together with some uniformity relief by state measures may turn out to be largely a delusion. We believe it would prove so over a considerable part of Indiana. There is not much question of the federal government's authority to proceed and of its power to make its measures signally effectual, looking to fuel relief in all parts, as ought to be the case. Moreover, there are critical phases of the problem that effect the federal government in many ways that are vital to the entire country and its future.

It would be a most astounding anomaly if the government, having asserted and enforced its right to the bodies of ten million young men, were to confess inability to assure itself of so gross a thing as fuel or to admit its reluctance and timidity to smash any obstacles that stand in the way of all defensive resources that are possible and practicable only by dependable assurances of fuel. It may be taken with a good deal of faith that before many weeks have passed the coal barons either will have taken counsel of good sense, decent respect to fair dealing and the rising spirit of patriotism or they will have knocked under to the rigors of a government that has no time to monkey with ruthless profiteers. Solution of the coal problem will emerge at an early day, we believe everybody may feel assured.

Pending more definite announcements by the federal government, it is not without consolation to witness that some thirteen of the states present by their councils of defense in the Chicago conference have resolved upon action of some sort to relieve the fuel situation. If they must proceed without federal assistance they can make out to do something and if Washington means to lay its hands on the coal industry, there are many ways in which the state government can assist.

SOMETHING HAS HAPPENED.

There was reassurance of a solid kind as well as critical interest in the disclosures made by Premier Lloyd-George's speech in the British house of commons Thursday. Great Britain's position in respect of grain was shown to be something like 25 per cent. better than it was a year ago and this condition may be expected to improve, for the more stringent economies in the use of cereals in the United Kingdom are of quite recent effect. Continuing practice of conservation will further strengthen Great Britain in this respect and it may be taken without much reservation that Lloyd George was not blustering when he declared German's submarine ruthlessness would not be able to starve England out.

The premier's statements respecting the decline of shipping losses during the past two months perhaps may be taken as showing another reason for Great Britain's better status in the matter of food grains. These statements are more interesting, however, as indicating that submarine warfare is being better answered than it had been. Lloyd George assured the commons that the British admiralty's measures had been increasingly effective and it certainly is borne out not only by the greatly diminished losses to British shipping, but by the reports of the French and Italian governments respecting their own moderate sufferings in recent weeks.

Something has happened in the war on water. Germany's unrestricted submarine was inaugurated February 1. Its ravages increased at an appalling rate until the end of April, since which time there has been a fluctuating decline from the peak. That no sweeping and effectual means of combatting the submarines has been found is true enough, as the records from day to day and month to month show, but that ruthlessness has been very considerably checkmated is clear enough by the same records. How far the naval interventions of the United States have contributed to this result there is no means by which the public can judge. Admiral Sims has been operating on the other side with his flotilla of destroyers since late in May. It is probable, though nothing has been disclosed, that a considerable number of the new type of patrol boats and other suitable craft readily converted to the purpose has been put to work in the zones of ruthlessness by the Washington government.

Official expression in Germany on repeated occasion has been bent to make the failure of ruthless warfare consist with the boastful promise made in January that the submarines would bring England within three months to her knees begging for peace. When three months had passed and England was fighting harder than ever the period was extended to six months. That period and more has passed and England is neither starved nor in danger of starving. Submarine tolls have diminished by half. Something has taken place that minimizes even if it does not abate the great menace to the strength of the allied powers.

It is stated that the federal government is losing patience with the I. W. W. campaign to paralyze vital industries in the west and will soon take drastic steps to throttle that disloyal activity. Power to them that have the job to do. There is no more reason why the federal government should be patient or forbearing with the miscreants who lead the I. W. W. on its course of disloyalty, treason and other crimes than it would be with disloyalty and treason elsewhere in the land. The sooner the conspiracy to bust up business in the west is made an end of the better it will be for the west as well as the balance of the country.

Mr. Root says the great trouble in Russia has been the Russian equivalent of the American I. W. W. That is a good deal for a young democracy with great temptations to radicalisms to survive and Russia has contrived to do it wonderfully well, according to the American mission that went over there.

There is soon to be a new bond issue and those who think they like their investment in the Liberty Loan will not have to be proselytized to be made to see both duty and self-interest beckoning as one.

The favorite outdoor sport in Washington these days is capturing the insulting and disloyal banners the Sillie Sillies attempt to parade before the White House.

Food in the cellar in nice long rows of jars is a very comfortable sight and reflection to place against the thoughts of the winter coming on.

There will be mixed emotions in the land by announcement that the day and date for the formal execution of John Dillinger has been fixed and that it is not remote.

HOLLAND STARVES WITH GERMANY BECAUSE SHE WON'T JOIN THE ALLIES

(By L. HARPER LEECH.)

"No, thank God, there is one article I don't have to worry about," said Chevelier Van Reppard, the wearied minister from the Netherlands, who had just been asked if the Dutchmen were getting tobacco from America.

His explosive remark no less than his tired look told how Uncle Sam's embargo is tightening the noose of starvation about Germany, and driving Holland onto the horns of the dilemma, "Fight with the allies or eat with Germany."

Washington is a city of worried men—but the tall, lanky Dutchman probably has the toughest job. Daily the cables tell of food troubles along the Amsterdam canals, of potato riots in Rotterdam, of expensive dairy cows slain in Frisian meadows for lack of fodder. Holland has been drained of food to feed Germany, but the Teuton octopus still demands more.

Across the boundary are roosting German troops and German guns. The open threat of cutting off Holland's iron and coal is terrifying enough, with winter coming on, but the veiled threat of these guns, emphasized by the starvation and massacre just a few miles south in Belgium, is more terrible.

While Holland writhes in doubt and hunger, 70 of her ships loaded to their gunwales with food and fodder, are smokeless in American harbors. Fifty are fenced about in New York harbor by American destroyers.

Twenty are scattered between Baltimore, Boston and Philadelphia. They have on board 160,000 tons of wheat, rye, barley, and linseed cake for cattle.

Allied statesmen assert these ships were given free passage by the German subs because they would help feed Germany.

The Dutch point out that some of the ships have been sunk and hundreds of men, afraid to go out because of the subs, even before the American embargo, and that hundreds of Dutch ships have been sunk and hundreds of innocent sailors and fishermen murdered by submarines.

But the Dutch ships sunk were hauling for the allies, and Holland by tying up her ships did exactly what the German admiralty demanded of America, when ruthless warfare was proclaimed. It has been asserted that Germany is paying the owners of idle Dutch ships when they refrain from carrying freight to Britain.

Since the American embargo was laid, not one export license has been granted a ship carrying food for Holland. Whether any will be depends on the duel of wits between Herbert Hoover and Van Reppard. Hoover has the final say.

The president has laid down the rule that no food will be sent to a neutral until the needs of America and her allies have been met, and that no neutral shall import from America more than enough food to feed her people, after all her native produce has been consumed at home.

This, of course, cuts off any exports to Germany.

Van Reppard says this is unjust because Holland must have coal and iron as well as food, and the only way she can get them is to pay Germany for them with perishable food products. He also claims Holland sends dairy products to England.

One interesting and little-noted war result has been the commercial annexation of the rich Dutch East Indies to the United States. The three big Dutch steamship lines which used to carry the products of these islands to Amsterdam for distribution to the world, now land their cargoes at San Francisco.

The voyage to Amsterdam is through the submarine field.

The diversion of this traffic has enabled America to draw off many of her Pacific merchant ships to the Atlantic.

OLD KING COAL NEXT TO LOSE THRONE, IS A GROWING PROSPECT

(By GILSON GARDNER.)

The production and distribution of coal at fair prices is one of the objects of the so-called food bill. "Food, feed and fuel"—the law reads.

Hoover says he has his hands full with the food problem, so the president will have to find someone else to be "coal dictator."

At a guess it will be W. B. Colver of the federal trade commission. Colver has specialized on coal and knows more about the difficulties and remedies than any man in the country. This is admitted by his colleagues on the commission and by the senate committee which drafted the food law coal sections after Colver had spent two whole days telling them about it.

Under the law President Wilson "may" use the federal trade commission to carry out its purposes. The law gives the government ample power. It only remains for the government to use them.

The government may take over the coal industry, if it seems best, and as much of the railroad and their equipment as necessary.

The law also empowers the coal famine is caused largely by car shortage. So congress passed the "priority law." The president through proper agents, may direct coal or other shipments and regulate car distribution. This ought to bring adequate coal cars to the mines.

The so-called Pomerene amendment takes care of coal price and distribution. Under it the federal trade commission can determine production cost, compel pooling of all coal at the mine, and fix the price there at a figure covering mining cost and reasonable profit. Then the government may follow the coal through the agencies of distribution, seeing that it reaches the consumer without excessive middlemen profits.

The government's weekly bituminous coal report shows car shortage remains the principal obstacle in the north. A better car supply is reported from Virginia and the south. In Illinois the car shortage was responsible for 17 per cent of the loss in output; in Indiana 20 per cent, in Ohio 18 and in western Pennsylvania 15 per cent. In these fields labor troubles have reduced the output less than 3 per cent.

Special committees are in Washington from Boston and Minneapolis urging the precarious situation in New England and the northwest. Factories and public service gas and electric plants already complain of the impossibility of getting coal from the mines.

prices. And it is daily borne in on the White House, that the coal problem must be handled quickly if the nation's industrial machinery—including its war-making machinery—is to be kept going.

THE SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN.

(Indianapolis Star.)

We hear a good deal about the ships that are sunk by German submarines and the tonnage of losses seems alarming, but we hear little about the merchant ships that arrive safely, yet they greatly outnumber the torpedoed vessels. An Englishman who arrived in New York this week reports that there is no noticeable scarcity of food, the supply arriving being large in spite of the submarines. He casually mentions seeing a fleet of twenty-five supply ships protected by a flotilla of destroyers and patrol boats enter a British harbor the day he sailed.

Another transatlantic passenger reports an abundant harvest in England and Wales and says there is not the smallest danger of starvation in that country. One interesting crop item is that England has 370,000 more acres of potatoes than ever before. Wages are higher than laboring people of England have ever known, and in spite of high prices—which, incidentally, are not as high as our prices—there is less than the usual distress among the poor.

It is plain that Germany is greatly disappointed at the result of the U-boat campaign up to this time. When the attacks upon food ships were renewed last winter the German boast was that England would be starved out in three months. That time is long past and the starvation limit. Even the rumored giant submarines will not drive shipping off the seas. The world is a trifle too big for Germany to swallow.

What to Use and Avoid On Faces that Perspire

Skin, to be healthy, must breathe. It also must perspire—must expel, through the pores, its share of the body's waste material. Certain creams and powders clog the pores, interfering both with elimination and breathing, especially during the heated period. If more women understood this, there would be fewer self-runned complexions. This remarkable substance actually absorbs the perspiration, also unclogging the pores. Result: The fresher, younger under-skin is permitted to breathe and to show itself. The exquisite new complexion gradually peeps out, one free from any appearance of artificiality. Obtain an ounce of mercerized wax from your druggist and try it. Apply nightly like cold cream for a week or two, washing it off mornings. To remove wrinkles, here's a marvellously effective treatment, which also acts curatively on the skin: Dissolve an ounce of powdered exfolite in a half pint witch hazel and use as a wash lotion.

Superfluous Hair Now Removed Roots and All!

(New and Instantaneous Home Method.)

A boon to women troubled with superfluous hair is the new pelacetic process. It is totally unlike the depilatory, electrical and other methods heretofore employed for the removal of hairy growths. It is the only thing that enables one to remove the hair completely—roots and all—in one's own home, without the assistance of an expert. The result cannot be doubted, for the user sees the hair-roots with her own eyes. A stick of pelacetic, with easy directions, can be had at any drug store. It is entirely harmless (a child could safely eat it), odorless and non-irritating. Always sold under a money-back guarantee. It is an instantaneous method, and so thorough that the skin is left perfectly smooth and hairless, bearing not the least evidence of its former disfigurement.

TO ADDRESS STATE FRANCHISE LEAGUE

Mrs. R. E. Edwards at Reception to Be Held at the University Club.

Foremost among the Indiana women who are doing their bit in the world's work as well as attending to the myriad duties of wifehood, motherhood and home-making is Mrs. Richard E. Edwards, of Peru, president of the Woman's Franchise League of Indiana.

Mrs. Edwards is also a business woman, in addition to being the chief executive of the Woman's Franchise League of Indiana, which is the most active woman's organization in the state, largely because it reflects the brilliant, buoyant personality of its leader.

When President Wilson recognized the existence of a state of war with Germany, Mrs. Edwards offered the services of every member of the Woman's Franchise League to the state of Indiana for war work. The organization which had 85 branches when Mrs. Edwards took the presidency last April, now has 250 active leagues.

Mrs. Edwards feels that full woman suffrage will come as a war measure. For the present she urges that every woman give the full measure of service to the woman citizen. The Franchise League continues to organize and to strengthen its forces that the use of its splendid organization may be placed at the full disposal of the state or nation.

Mrs. Edwards is the daughter of Mrs. Thomas Arthur Stuart, of Lafayette, one of the best known club women in the state. She was graduated from Smith college, and after her marriage to Mr. Edwards, she spent six years in Menominee and Sault Ste. Marie, where her husband was engaged in the lumber business. It was while investigating the condition of milk in order to obtain clean milk for her small son, that Mrs. Edwards became actively interested in the duties of the woman citizen. Milk stations and clean-up day were the first objects of her concern. As a result of the systematic campaign which she started, the "Soo" was more effectively cleaned up than ever before. While at the Soo Mrs. Edwards was president of a large civic league and worked on the county prison and charities board. This work she has continued in Indiana, being secretary of the Miami county board of children's guardians of charities and correction.

When her husband returned to Indiana, and assumed the management of the Peru Chair works, Mrs. Edwards began to assist him in this business. From her desk she oversees the designing and decorating of the beautiful and artistic chairs made there, and answers frequent calls for lectures on home furnishing from the women's clubs and furniture associations. Mrs. Edwards says:

"Real business is the most fascinating thing in the world, and being in a congenial business with one's husband means that one's life is just as broad and full and satisfactory as it can be."

Mrs. Edwards will arrive in this city Friday evening, and will be the guest of Mrs. Fred McCulloch during her stay.

Miss Sadie Fleming will give a luncheon at the Country club in honor of Mrs. Edwards.

A cordial invitation is extended to every woman in the city to hear Mrs. Edwards' lecture at the University club. There will be an opportunity for all who have not registered to do so at this meeting on Saturday afternoon.

ALLEN COUNTY IS TO MAKE 2,250 GARMENTS

Call Comes to Red Cross Workers for Knitted Articles.

An urgent appeal is being sent out to Red Cross chapters all over the country for knitted garments to be used by the soldiers abroad this winter. The quota of Indiana has been fixed at 12,000 pieces each of sweaters, wristlets, mufflers and socks. Of this quantity Allen county is to furnish 2,250 of each kind of garment. The Fort Wayne chapter will start soon on this work in order to have its quota completed before the coming of cold weather.

A large shipment of garments was received from the chapter at Peru Friday morning. There were over 600 garments in the lot. A car load of supplies is to be sent out from the local shipping station soon to points where they are needed.

Donations continue to come in from juvenile workers. Little Jane Fisher, of West Berry street, gave $5 Friday morning, which was part of the proceeds from a bazaar held at Frankfort, Mich. Marjorie Ashley and Cornelia Morgan, of the St. Joe road, brought in $2.75.

Mrs. C. R. Sablatske, of 1935 Wells street, helped brighten the headquarters with the donation of a large quantity of flowers Friday morning.

Many garments, beautifully made, according to the officials at headquarters, came in from neighborhood circles from the St. Mary's, St. John and Cathedral churches. Mrs. J. W. Thompson, of Sullivan street, also brought in garments made by neighborhood workers.

SPAIN IS BECOMING NORMAL IS REPORT

Attempt to Stir Revolution Put Down by the Government.

Paris, Aug. 17.—A dispatch from Madrid to the Associated Press says news from all Spain says everything is becoming normal. It was necessary to use cannon against the barricade made by strikers at Sabadell near Barcelona, resulting in the demolishing of four houses and the killing and wounding of several strikers. Two soldiers were killed and ten wounded.

All prisoners in the Madrid jail tried to escape. A struggle with soldiers occurred wherein there were a number killed and wounded on each side. It is said that revolutionists throughout Spain are plotting with prisoners for their escape, taking advantage of the disturbances.

Madrid has become more animated. Some vehicles and tramways are circulating. A dispatch to the Havas agency received here says the imprisoned strikers did not join in the prison mutiny. They are occupying separate quarters. The mutiny occurred at a moment when families were allowed to visit the jail. Shrieks of terrified women increased the confusion. The prison guards succeeded in subduing the mutineers and placing them in dungeons and the soldiers were not called in. It is announced that seven of the leaders of the mutiny were killed. A mutiny of convicts in the prison at Santonic, caused by the quality of the food served to the prisoners, has been repressed.

ANNUAL CAMP MEETING STARTS AT WABASH

Seventh Day Adventists Will Be in Session for the Next Ten Days.

Wabash, Ind., Aug. 17.—The annual camp meeting and conference of the Seventh Day Adventist, which opened to the public Thursday night (August 16) in the City park at Wabash, and will continue for the coming ten days, bids fair to be one of the largest and most important gatherings ever held by the Adventist denomination in Indiana. The park now has the appearance of a veritable tented city. One hundred and forty tents have already been pitched on the grounds and many more campers are expected during the coming week. It has been necessary to send for a shipment of tents outside of the state, in addition to the large number owned by the association and many of the campers are finding it necessary to rent rooms in the city.

Prominent Speakers Present.

Prominent speakers of world-wide reputation will take part in the public service. Prominent among them is Elder W. A. Spicer, of Washington, D. C., who has the general oversight of foreign missions of the denomination throughout the world; Elder E. R. Palmer, manager of the big Review and Herald Publishing house, of Washington, D. C.; Elder Fred Lee, missionary from China; Elder E. R. Thurber, formerly of Burma; Elder W. H. Wakeham, of Emmanuel Missionary college, Berlin Springs, Michigan, and formerly a missionary to Egypt; and Elder L. H. Christian, of Chicago, president of the Lake Union conference; Elder W. A. Westworth, of Indianapolis, president of the Indiana conference; Professor J. G. Lamson, principal of Fairland academy and noted lecturer, will all take a prominent part in the services.

New Record Set.
All the ministers and gospel workers, both at home and abroad, report progress and advancement in their line of gospel work, and in new converts won, while many of the ministers report remarkable success. The Adventist denomination is now conducting work in ninety-two countries of the world and has sent from the home base 1,123 missionaries into foreign mission territory in the last eleven years. The total contributions from North America for evangelistic work for this period has been over $10,000,000.

The number of persons baptized in North America during 1916 was 6,782. During the past three years the number of persons baptized in North America and added to the church has been 23,743, an average of fourteen each day; 17,200 persons were baptized throughout the world during the past year.

Many Evangelists in Field.
The number of evangelistic laborers in North America is 2,449, an increase of 110 during the past year. Evangelistic and institutional laborers average 1 for every 14 members throughout the denomination. There are now throughout the world 40 denominational publishing houses and branches, 40 sanitariums and treatment rooms, 7 colleges and academies, 246 mission schools with an enrollment of 31,364. And the investment in all institutions approximates $16,000,000.

Wabash Meeting One of Many.
The camp-meeting now being held in Wabash is only one of many hundreds held annually in different parts of the world. The first Adventist camp-meeting was held at Wright, Mich., September 1-7, 1868. Since that time the camp-meeting has been an annual affair with these people. Over 300 camp-meetings are now held annually by the denomination, not only in America but in all parts of the world.

Enjoying Rapid Growth.
Since 1863, the time the denomination was first organized, it has almost doubled every 10 years, the growth the last ten years being from 169 conferences and missions to over 250, the number of laborers increasing from 3,500 to over 5,000, and the communicants from 87,000 to about 125,000. Adventists now operate 25 union conferences, 127 local conferences and 191 missions under conference supervision. They support 935 ministers, 572 licensed ministers, 1,608 missionaries and 2,060 colporteurs. There are 3,583 churches.

The Banner Year in Indiana.
The work of the denomination has made marked progress in Indiana during the past year, and in many lines all previous records have been exceeded. A marked increase has been made during the year in the number of evangelists, ministers and gospel workers who have united their efforts with the gospel ministers already in the state. Several new churches have been organized and will apply for admission during the present conference.

The members of the churches have shown a generous spirit and a much larger amount has been given for the support of gospel workers during the past twelve months than in any previous year.

BLOOMINGTON'S WAR MARKET A SUCCESS

Prof. Stockton's Plan Has Worked Out Well in College Town.

Indianapolis, Aug. 17.—In a bulletin soon to be issued by Indiana university, a story of perhaps the most remarkable war market in the central west will be told. The market—established as one of several similar experiments in combating the high cost of living by professors and others connected with the state university—already is in successful operation in the city of Bloomington. Residents of the town say that prices of food materials already have dropped appreciably and that with each successive "market day" the Bloomington housewives and boarding house keepers are patronizing the market street in greater degree. Those who bring produce to sell, now are disposing of their products between 6 o'clock and 8:30 o'clock in the mornings and, thus, are back on their farms almost before they know the day has begun.

How It Came About.
The first "small-town" market in the outgrowth of co-operation between citizens of Bloomington and the Indiana university department of economics and social science. Professor Frank T. Stockton, after a series of investigations, which included markets of various sizes, believed the idea of bringing the producer and consumer together in these war times could be worked out in the small town as well as in the larger towns. A local movement had been started in Bloomington with the idea of lowering prices of farm products if possible. Professor Stockton and Professor C. M. Hepburn, of the Indiana university school of law, joined this local movement and the first retail market in Bloomington was started. It has been in operation some weeks and the prices of all foodstuffs sold on the market has been forced down in local stores 10 to 15 per cent, and in some instances, even lower.

Makes a Study Tour.
Indiana university had financed a field trip during which Professor Stockton studied retail markets carefully. Then he applied his knowledge to the Bloomington market. He drafted a market ordinance and it was adopted by the common council. Provision was made for a market advisory committee to oversee the market and study its problems. Professor Stockton is named chairman of this committee. The ordinance provided for a growers' or producers' market, to be held on Wednesday and Saturday mornings. A market space was set aside on one of the streets near the public square. The unique phase of the plan was that no charge was made for situations for sale. One of the city policemen was appointed market master. Thus the city was placed under no additional expense for its market. The ordinance was passed on Tuesday night. Little advertising was done and only four growers appeared on the market the next Saturday morning.

With each succeeding market day, however, sellers of garden truck prove in, and now from twenty-five to thirty wagons are in the "farmers' line" on Saturdays.
Have Saturday Night Market.
The market opens at 6 o'clock in the morning. Most of the dealers are sold out in two hours. A Saturday night market is to be started at once, thus giving the wage earners of Bloomington an opportunity to reap more benefits from the market. The customers at the market get strictly fresh goods. They have wide choice in purchasing foodstuffs. The prices are so far below the local merchants that some of them already are seeking to undersell the farmers on the days when they bring their produce to market. The student boarding house keepers, however, are continuing to purchase all the farmers will bring in. The market advisory committee constantly is carrying on a campaign of education among the farmers, who sell on the market. It explains the necessity for correct weights, satisfactory prices and proper methods of preparing goods for sale. This committee also is spreading the gospel of conservation for war, urging drying of fruits and vegetables.

AMERICAN WOMAN'S BIT.
Stockholm, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Percy Proctor has asked the American minister, Ira Nelson Morris, to transmit to the state department her offer to place her villa near Mentone, France, at the disposition of the American army authorities in France. The villa has accommodations for forty men. It is Mrs. Proctor's idea that it should be used as a convalescent's home.

The fall term of the Fort Wayne High and Manual Training school will begin September 4. All pupils new to the high school who completed their eighth grade work in any other than the city schools are expected to confer with the principal before that date. He will be in his office from 8 to 11 every morning after August 20.

Lemons for Complexion
Juice of two lemons made into creamy lotion can be used to bleach, whiten and soften the skin.
Make a quarter pint cheaply!

The beauty lotion which is becoming so popular throughout the country is easily prepared by anyone, and a whole quarter pint of it doesn't cost any more than a small jar of the common, ordinary cold creams.
Add the juice of two fresh lemons to three ounces of orchard white and shake well in a bottle. Strain the lemon juice two or three times through a fine cloth so no pulp gets into the lotion, then it will keep fresh for months. Regardless of what price you pay for any highly advertised cream, it is nothing but a mixture of water and soap. The beauty lotion which is becoming so popular throughout the country is easily prepared by anyone, and a whole quarter pint of it doesn't cost any more than a small jar of the common, ordinary cold creams.

Lemons have always been used to bleach the skin, but pure lemon juice is too highly acid, therefore irritating. Try it! This sweetly fragrant lotion will speak for itself. Any drug store or toilet counter will supply the three ounces of orchard white at very little cost, and the money will save you the cost of a highly advertised cream.

BOYS RESERVE GETS SUPPORT

Patriotic Council Endorses Move to Enroll Boys for War Time Service.

APPEAL IS MADE IN BEHALF OF MOVEMENT

County Commissioners Can Appropriate Funds for Use of Organization.

Following the report of A. L. McDonald, head of the Boys' Working Reserve in this city, at a meeting of the Fort Wayne council of Patriotic Service at the Commercial club, Thursday night, the council adopted a motion endorsing the work being done in registering and enrolling boys from 16 to 20 in the reserve.

The following statement, signed by the seven members of the council, William H. Scheimann, Frank E. Bohn, C. Ross McCulloch, F. S. Hunting, C. R. Lane, Mrs. George P. Evans and Rev. Arthur J. Folsom, is addressed to the people of this city:

"At a meeting of the executive committee of the Council for Patriotic Service, sitting also as the Allen County Council of Defense, we gave full consideration to the purposes and scope of the work of the Boys' Working Reserve and were convinced that it is a movement worthy of your support. We appeal to all young men between 16 and 20 years of age to register by Saturday night, August 18, and to enroll for the productive industrial service which our country so much needs, as shown by the appeal made by the president of the United States and of the governor of Indiana. The service is one for which the full usual wage will be paid and the enrollment for this service does not involve the enrolled member in any military obligation whatever or make it necessary for him to leave home or engage in any work for which he is not prepared and willing. At the same time the movement is supported by the purest of patriotic motives and the surest of usefulness. We have entire confidence in the directors, Mr. McDonald and Mr. McDonald and believe they are entitled to your confidence."

Only Two Nights Remain. As there are but two more nights for registration and enrollment, Friday and Saturday, the members of the council and the local director of the work are urging that all boys in the city who have failed to register up to this time do so immediately.

Much disappointment has been evinced at the small number of Fort Wayne boys who signed their willingness to work in compliance with the wishes of the government. The four schools where the boys may register from 6:30 to 9:30 p. m. are the Hoagland, Hanna, Harman and Jefferson, as has been stated before. Registration in the work is compulsory and means will be found to detect those who have failed to comply, it is stated. There seems to have been some propaganda circulated against the Boys' Working Reserve to the effect that it is of a military character, which, it is pointed out, is not the purpose of the organization.

Mr. Scheimann reported at the request of the State Council of Defense that Maj. John E. Miller be recommended as organizer of the Fort Wayne militia. The new company will be composed of men above the conscription age limit, who will receive pay for their time and work. Mr. Scheimann also reported to the council that he has been advised by the State Council of Defense that he has the legal right to recommend and the county commissioners have the right to appropriate money for necessary expenses of the Allen County Council of Defense. The committee decided to ask the county commissioners for $1,000 to carry on the work of the county council.

BROKE UP DISHES.

Herman Ikemeyer Celebrates Release from Jail by Cansing Trouble.

Herman Ikemeyer faced Judge Kerr in police court Friday morning on a charge of drunkenness. He was fined one dollar and costs with the promise that the next time he came back he would be sent to the state farm. This promise seemed to have little effect on Herman and no sooner had he paid his fine than he took several more drinks and went home and broke up all his mother's fine dishes. The patrol brought him to the station.

DIVIDED IN THEIR VIEWS

Opinions of Officers as to Date of Departure Differ Widely.

WILL NOT LEAVE FOR TWO WEEKS SAYS ONE

Company E Given Strenuous Drill at Lawton Park Friday Afternoon.

Divers opinions are advanced among the shoulder strapped members of Company E and Company B as to the date of departure. Some are of the belief that the boys will be out of the city before another week goes by while one says it will be at least two weeks. It is believed that when the order comes to move to the designated place that it will be several days before the boys will have to leave. This is to say that the order to move will be announced three or four days before moving.

Company E members were put through drill exercises on West Berry street Friday morning and in the afternoon the boys were taken to Lawton park.

Thirty-six more men left the Fort Wayne recruiting station Thursday evening as volunteers in the United States regulars. Nine men enlisted Friday morning for various branches of service in the Indiana national guard.

Loe donated his services for the printing of some matter; Kasper & Bode donated the punch and Mr. Trier made a special price on the hall. This announcement was made by Mrs. Kirkland. Meanwhile no news will be given out from company B headquarters. The sentinel at the door of the officers' room announced that the officers were "done with the newspapers."

Phinney, who was terribly wounded in the action made by the Canadians on Vimy Ridge is improving. The sergeant's brother is colonel of the 85th Overseas battalion of Canadian infantry.

Hiram Long Killed at Larwill and Nephew is Fatally Hurt.

FAILED TO HEED WARNING IN TIME

Two Men Are Hit by Manhattan Limited on Pennsylvania at Noon.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Larwill, Ind., Aug. 17.—Hiram Long, 70, was instantly killed and his nephew, Hiram Long, Jr., 40, was perhaps fatally injured when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by westbound Pennsylvania passenger train No. 23, known as the Manhattan Limited, at noon Friday.

The junior Long sustained a fractured skull and internal injuries. He is being rushed to a Fort Wayne hospital, where an operation will be performed in an effort to save his life. There is little hope of his recovery, however. The accident occurred at the Mill street crossing. Samuel Mohr, a section hand, saw the machine approaching and warned them of their danger. Long slackened the speed of his car, but not in time to prevent the accident. The train does not stop here and was going at a terrific speed. It was on the north track and the junior Long was found beneath the wreckage of the automobile on the south track. He was unconscious. The senior Long was hurled a distance of twenty feet ahead of the car and was killed instantly.

The two Longs lived on a farm northwest of Larwill. The elder Long is survived by four sons and two daughters. His nephew is married, but has no children.

He hoped for complete regeneration of the Russian forces. The general predicted operations on a vast scale on the Rumanian front and also elsewhere and especially in the north, where, he indicated, there was a possibility of combined land and sea actions. He expressed the opinion that another winter campaign was inevitable.

The meeting in the governor's office was to be attended by Lieut. Gov. Bush, Speaker Eschbach, of the house, floor leaders of both parties, and a number of committee chairmen. The coal situation is not the only question to be considered by the legislature. Since the Indiana national guard has been called for federal service the question of supplying a guard or state police of some kind has been given considerable thought. There has been much discussion of this subject.

WILL ASSIST SECOND LOAN

Commercial Club Asked to Help Advertise Next Liberty Bonds.

VALUABLE AID WILL BE GIVEN

President Miller Will Probably Attend National Convention.

Notice of the expected co-operation in the second liberty loan soon to be floated by the government by the Commercial club from the national chamber of commerce has been received by the president and secretary of the local organization. It being the first intimation had here of the proposed new loan and the campaign which the Commercial club would be expected to carry on.

The national body is advising that the local club, which is a member, send in requests for posters and window cards, which may be had without cost by filling out a requisition. Commercial organizations have been asked to transmit to their members the request that they have printed in red letters on the bottom of the address side of all business envelopes, and also on all letter heads, the following sentence: "Save for the second liberty loan."

The national chamber of commerce has just made an announcement which has been received by Secretary Bledsoe, of the Commercial club, of the coming convention of the Atlantic City, September 18-21, called a "War Convention of American Business." The purpose of the national meeting, it is stated, is to consider the special problems affecting the business of the United States developed by the war.

In outlining the purpose of the meeting R. G. Rhett, president of the national body says: "Victory in the great struggle in which we are engaged depends largely upon the power, intelligence, speed of the industry of the United States; upon our ability to produce faster and better than ever before, the things necessary for efficient warfare."

Some of the subjects which will be considered as stated in the announcement are: 1. The duty that business men owe the government in war; 2. How may the business of the country render the greatest service in winning the war; 3. Ways and means by which business may most readily adjust itself to the conditions produced by the war; 4. For what readjustments after the war must business prepare. It is probable that President E. C. Miller, of the Commercial club, will attend the national convention.

ORAL HEARINGS GIVEN IN SECOND

Boards Weed Out Slackers' Claims for Exemption from Service.

More soldiers were secured for Uncle Sam's new army from those summoned for examination on the second call than on the first. This was experienced in both the second and third districts.

District 1 and the county districts are hopeful that this rule will hold good in their cases. The county district will begin its examination of 250 more men next Monday morning.

In the meantime the four district boards are at work weeding out the slackers' claims for exemption.

Oral examinations of several claims in district 2 are being held this evening. Thursday evening several men were given hearings and many more will be heard Friday evening. Announcement has been made that while the boards had no special reason for believing that deceit had been practiced, the members would take drastic action should it be learned upon investigation that false affidavits or misstatements had figured in the presentation of an appeal claim. The appeal board convenes on the fifth floor of the Physicians' Defense building.

No Religious Exemptions. The county board will not discharge from service those who are eligible, but claim exemption on the ground of being members of religious organizations opposed to war. Eighteen young men have asked for exemption on this ground in the county district. Four of the eighteen affirmed for the reason that the church with which they are identified prohibits swearing. A large percentage of the decisions of the local boards are being sustained by the appeal board.

Thursday's Results. The following failed to appear for examination when ordered before district board No. 2 and have been certified as soldiers:

Ernest C. Suehl, 1316 McClellan street. Charles L. Newhouse, 120 West Superior street. Henry A. Kibiger, 1332 Elm street. William A. Lemke, 120 East Lewis street. RUSSIA PLANS TO REFORM HER NAVY

Petrograd, June 29.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Major General Klado, chief of naval educational institutions, has prepared a radical plan of naval training reform, based on the doctrine that the recent granting of full political rights to fighting men of both services involves the infusion of a new spirit into their education.

The plan provides that the existing naval academy, school for marines, marine engineering institute and Sebastopol naval training corps shall all be directed from a central naval educational institution in this city. Other marine and naval schools will be united with the Sebastopol corps into a single naval school to be situated in Sebastopol. A radical reform is that, for these schools, all persons will be eligible who have had secondary education. There will be no privileges for nobles. Thereby the career of naval officer will be opened to Russians of relatively humble position and means. The ultimate aim of the reform is that naval education after the war will be conducted in a pacifist and anti-militarist spirit, so as to prepare for the expected reduction of armaments.

Bad Attack of Diarrhoea Cured.

"About two years ago I had an attack of bowel trouble and was in a serious condition when I began using Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. J. Rogan, Fairport, N. Y. "This medicine relieved me at once and after taking three or four doses of it I was cured." People are always pleased by the prompt cures which this remedy effects. The recommendations of those who have used it have done much to make it the most popular medicine in use for bowel complaints.—Advertisement.

PERFECT DEVICE THAT CUTS FLOATING MINES

Rotterdam (Netherlands), Aug. 17.—Experiments with a newly invented device intended to cut the anchor chains of floating mines and to prevent them from coming in contact with a vessel passing through a mine field, have been conducted here, it is claimed, with success. The contrivance was invented by Rear Admiral Goedhart of the Dutch navy. It was affixed to a steamship of the Batavier line for a series of tests. The vessel steamed through a field of harmless mines with the result, it is asserted, that every mine which barred her course automatically was pushed aside and its anchor chain cut. The invention consists of a steel prolongation of the ship's bow, which is easily hoisted or stowed away. It extends eighteen feet under the water and is designed to push the mine anchoring chains or cables aside to a distance of fifteen feet from either side of the vessel. At that point the cables or chains are clipped and the liberated mine rises to the surface fifteen feet from the vessel's side. Having once been passed safely, the plan is to explode the floating mine by shooting at it.

After the clipping of the chain of one mine the apparatus is intended automatically to become ready to deal with the next.

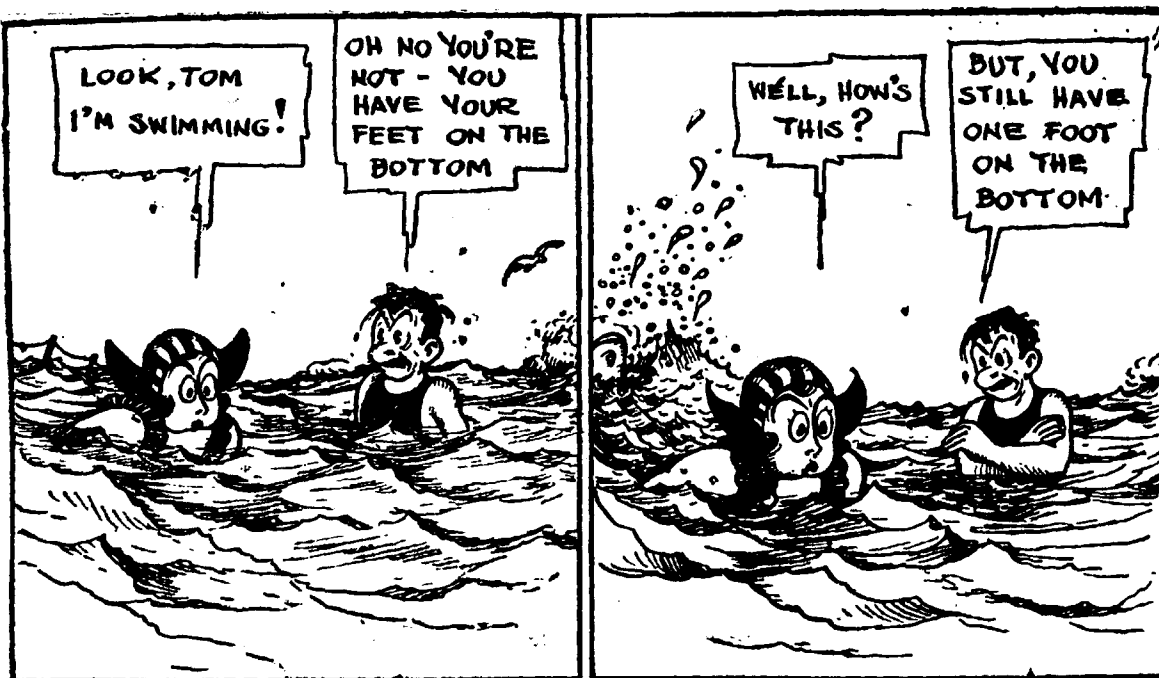

Pains in the Stomach and Bowels. Owing to the great distress which this disease occasions, every family should keep at hand the proper medicine for its relief. Mrs. L. E. Sink, Centerville, Ill., writes, "My father has kept Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house as long as I can remember, and when he has taken it, to my knowledge it has given the desired relief."—Advertisement.

RUSSIAN GIRLS TELL HERE OF WORK AS POLICE IN PETROGRAD

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 17.—The most interesting figures in the country today to American boys and girls—interesting to parents too—are Margaret and Vera de Longuine, who have come to Duluth from Petrograd after serving as soldier-policemen in Russia. Vera, who is only 14, was a messenger for the war department, and carried a revolver and bayonet. Margaret, two years older, had similar duties of even greater responsibility and peril. They had offered the new revolutionary government their services as girl scouts.

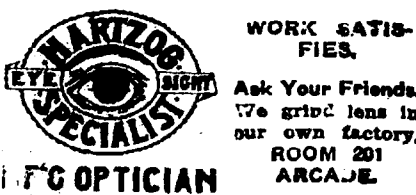

The two little rebels, who have seen some of the most thrilling scenes of the war upheaval and who prophesy Russian aid to beat the kaiser, are to complete their education in America.

ANNUAL REUNION OF OLD SETTLERS IS HELD

Rev. Folsom is Principal
Speaker at Gathering at Columbia City.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Columbia City, Aug. 17.—The seventeenth annual Old Settlers' Day was attended here Thursday by nearly 5,000 people from all parts of the county and Indiana. Rev. Folsom, of the Plymouth Congregational church, of Fort Wayne, was the speaker of the day, and the welcome address at 11 o'clock on the band stand in the court house square on which the old settlers were gathered, was given by Mayor Frank L. Myers, president of the association this year. Several contests were staged for the amusement of the crowd, and the day's program was one of merriment, enjoyment and reminiscence. In the evening, between 6:30 and 7:30 o'clock, a play festival was given by members of the chautauqua company that appears here next week. Prizes were awarded the old settlers, as follows: Oldest resident of the county, Rebecca Estick, of Troy township, born June 18, 1830, silver loving cup; longest consecutive resident, Abraham Elder, of Columbia City, born 1834, came to county January 1888, silver loving trophy; oldest "John" registered, John Smalley, of Larwill, born June 29, 1833; his prize was a cane; oldest "Mary" registered, Mrs. Mary Sherwood, of this city, who received a shawl for a prize; she was born July 20, 1835; youngest John, to the son of Leroy Chapman, prize, doll; he was born Jan. 23, 1915; youngest "Mary" registered, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wynkoop, of this city; prize, doll; first soldier to enlist, Chauncey B. Mattoon, enlisted April 25, 1861; longest service in civil war, Peter V. Gruesbeck, who served 4 years, 1 month and 21 days; he would also have won the prize for being the oldest soldier, were it not for rules preventing two prizes falling to one person; this latter honor was awarded to Isaiah Johnston, born December 10, 1835. Registering of old settlers was conducted in the corridors of the court house. The officers for next year are Henry E. Romey, president; Elmer E. Bittes, vice president; George F. Harrison, secretary; Cleon Fouat, treasurer; R. H. Marling, historian; J. H. Shilta, keeper of the museum. During the year past there were 155 deaths among persons over thirty years of age, or who have resided in the county thirty years or longer.

and two lots owned by the heirs of the late Daniel Twomey and located on the south side to Frank Leer for $980.

There Are 2 Reasons For This Extraordinary Sale

First-- We are remodeling. We are putting in a new front, which will be the finest in this section of the state. We are putting in new floors, new ceilings and new lighting fixtures. We must paint and paper throughout the entire store. We must have enough room to shift our stocks around in order to provide a place for the workmen. To secure this room we are forced to dispose of some of our stocks regardless of price.

Second-- For years it has been our custom to hold a midsummer sale and dispose of the stock that was to be replaced by new furniture purchased at the furniture exhibitions in Grand Rapids and Chicago during July. We intend to continue the custom this year, but we expected that our remodeling would be completed before these new stocks began to arrive. When it wasn't we were up against it! We couldn't take care of the workmen and our old stocks at the same time. The additional new stocks were simply out of the question unless we provided a place for them by disposing of the old. Consequently we were forced into making reductions which are not justified by the costs on the new stocks. But we simply must have the space. You can profit by taking advantage of this condition if you will.

Davenport's Are Just One of the Features

We cannot quote prices on every item included in this sale, but these davenport prices are typical of the reductions that we have made on our entire stock.

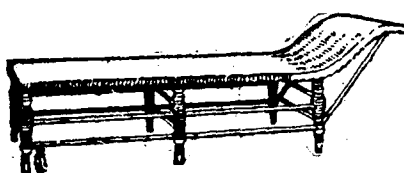

Perhaps no other article of furniture adds more to a small home than a Bed Davenport. It provides a useful addition to the living room and increases its attractiveness at the same time. It eliminates the necessity of an extra bedroom outfit when you have guests, for it can be converted into a comfortable bed by a simple operation accomplished in a second. It furnishes a cool downstairs sleeping place on extremely hot night. It supplies a convenient bed in case of sickness and eliminates the necessity of other members of the family running up and down stairs to give the patient proper attention.

While we quote just a few of the prices they will serve to show you what you may never be able to buy so cheaply again, for davenport prices are going right up, and you will have to pay the increase on stock just purchased.

We're Closing Out This Pyro-Lite Ware. It's a Rare Bargain!

Pyro-Lite is the finest blue and white enamelware. Previous to the war we secured our supply from Germany. While we hate to admit it now, nothing was ever made in this country that would equal it in quality or wearing ability. Our original source of supply is of course cut off. We could not get more if we wanted to, and therefore we are closing out the entire line. If you desire to furnish your kitchen with utensils that will wear a lifetime you can do so now—and the cost of these utensils is below that of the cheap grades.

"YES, RUSSIA WILL FIGHT!"

tion of another. It is a slander and a lie and ought to be dropped, buried and forgotten.

There are no braver men on the face of this earth than the great majority of the Russian soldiers. Ask anyone that has seen them in action, ask those who saw the marvelous and almost incredible heroism displayed by the Russian army in the famous movements of the summer of 1915. Ask anyone that can tell you of the masses of Russian soldiers that have gone unarmaged against the best equipped troops in the world and have fought them with bare hands.

To hear the uniformed casting reflections upon the valor of such men or sneering at the Russian nation as "yellow" is a hard strain on patient tolerance.

The real reason for the apparent halt and hesitation on Russia's part since the revolution is something very different. What it is I hope to be able to make clear in the articles that will follow this, and I think you will agree before I am through that harsh criticism of Russia by any American is rankly unjust and that what the real situation calls for is the utmost sympathy but not a word of blame.

Beset by thousand difficulties and dangers, problems and perplexities such as no nation has ever faced, all kinds of difficulties of which you in this country have never heard nor suspected nor dreamed, Russia has kept on with the most amazing fortitude and resolution, and when you come to know the whole story you will be filled with wonder that she has done as well as she has.

None but a very great people could have pulled out of that hole.

But for today I want to talk about our own country.

You think the question whether Russia will fight depends upon Russia. Let me tell you something.

It depends far more upon you.

You have to need to worry about Russia so far as she herself and alone is concerned. You have more reason to worry about the United States.

I come home to find that at the worst possible moment that the devil himself could devise, this nation is listening to a horde of traitors, German agents, selfish politicians and chicken-hearted peace-at-any-price babblers a lot of stuff loaded with the deadliest peril for Russia and for America.

I see members of congress that untold introduce resolutions for a peace conference or demand a statement of the terms of peace or otherwise do Potsdam's dirtiest work.

I hear of "peace conventions" and

"peace leagues" at a time when every word about peace spoken in the United States is worth to the Kaiser as much as a battalion taken from the Russian side and a battalion added to the German side.

The men that do these things take a poisoned dagger and drive it at the heart of their country.

If you have not been in Russia you do not know, you have not a guess of the terrible possibilities concealed in this maniacal or depraved fooling with death and destruction.

Let Russia gather from all these astounding performances the idea that the United States will not crowd on every point of steam and will not put forth every element of her strength—it is all off.

For the only conclusion that Russia can draw then is that the United States is about to desert the alliance, the United States is insincere and dishonest, the cause of the allies is hopelessly lost and nothing is left except for each member of it to do as the United States seems to be doing and look out for itself.

You would see then a real collapse on the Russian front pulling down upon us the most colossal and almost irretrievable disaster in human history. The spectacle therefore of these men in Washington taking such a chance of such ruin impending above us is enough to strike one breathless.

It is exactly as if there were stored in a warehouse a million open barrels of giant powder and Senator von Schinkler or Senator Feibewitz should walk through it airily flourishing a blazing pine torch.

Learn the truth and look at it squarely. If these men in congress and elsewhere keep on as they are going now they will cost this country five years of war, two million American lives and twenty-five billion American dollars.

This is the real meaning of your peace convention, peace leagues, anti-conscription law agitation and congressional resolutions designed to cripple your country in the time of its greatest crisis.

I suggest that before we utter any more of the reproaches against Russia that have been liberally adorning our press we take a good square look at some of our own suicidal work.

WOMAN DIES FROM HURTS

Panic in Street Car Costs Life of Miss Emma Schmidt.

SIX OTHER WOMEN SUSTAIN INJURY
Stampede Results When Fuse Blows Out at Jefferson and Lafayette.

One woman is dead and six others are suffering injuries as a result of the panic which occurred on an East Main street car at 10 o'clock Thursday night.

MISS EMMA SCHMIDT.

The accident occurred when a fuse blew out of the car at the corner of Jefferson and Lafayette streets. The front part of the car became enveloped in flames and the passengers immediately began crowding for the rear platform. The injuries to the women were caused when they were pushed off the platform by those coming behind.

The injured are: Mrs. William Heiney, 1402 East Wayne street, injuries to left leg and side.

Mrs. William Luhnman, 813 Canal street, bruised about the body.

Miss Gertrude Mahrenke, 615 East Jefferson street, severe bruises.

Miss Clara Schack, 1001 Madison street, cut and bruised about head.

Mrs. Emil Wolfe, 1132 Grant street, bruised.

Mrs. A. Schoenherr, 1219 Erie street, body bruises.

No Cause for Alarm. It seemed to be a case of imaginary danger, rather than real, as the fire was over immediately after the first flash.

Conductor Herman Knapp was in charge of the car, and although he tried to stop the crush, the women were pushed off the platform as they struggled to get out. The accident happened as the car was making the turn at the corner and the car was able to continue the run on its own power.

Miss Schmidt was rushed to the Lutheran hospital, where an operation was performed by Dr. H. A. Duemling and Dr. E. E. Morgan. Although the injured woman rallied from the shock, she became worse after midnight and died shortly after 2 o'clock.

Passing automobiles took the other injured women to their homes. The car was in charge of Conductor Herman Knapp and Motorman Ray Osborne. Stationmaster Fred Fry, Patrol-driver Buick and Patrolman Patterson investigated the accident.

Several men who were in the car were standing near the front and when the flash occurred they rushed toward the rear. It is reported, Miss Schmidt was pushed from the car, falling on her head and sustaining a fractured skull.

The dead woman was employed in the art department of the Steele-Meyer company. She was a member of the St. Paul Lutheran church and a graduate of the parochial schools. She is survived by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt, three brothers, Charles, George and William, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Kooz, of Goshen, and Mrs. Edith Root, of this city.

COURTS OPEN TO SOLDIERS.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Country club it was decided to throw the tennis courts open for the use of the soldiers who are home on a furlough from Fort Benjamin Harrison.

They are urged to make free use of the courts, which are in fine shape just now. They will not be available next week owing to the fact that the state tournament will be on at that time.

His accounting of food supplies and the shipping situation as affected by the submarine warfare was also regarded as indicative of Great Britain's safe position and strong attitude.

It was thought here that one of the objects of the premier's speech was to sound out public sentiment preliminary to the formal responses to be made to the pope's note. It is likely that public men in other allied countries will follow suit.

There are two James Nelsons in the Fort Wayne city directories of 1914 and 1916. Both are men of excellent repute and both are still resident here. At this time there has been no success in identifying the persons involved in the Chillicothe tragedy as late dwellers in this city.

On the Verdun a German stroke on a front of two kilometers between Caurles and Bezons. At points the French succeeded in gaining a foothold in the foremost French trenches, but subsequently they were driven out of the greater part of these positions.

British aviators yesterday dropped several tons of bombs on military establishments in Belgium. The French brought down two German airmen in Belgium and forced two others to land back of the German lines.

Another winter campaign is regarded as inevitable by Lieut. Gen. Korniloff, Russian commander-in-chief.

In an interview at Petrograd he also predicted operations on a vast scale along the Rumanian front, and hinted at important developments in the north with the possibility of combined land and naval actions.

WOMAN'S TONGUE A PROBLEM.

Seattle Wash., Aug. 17.—Officials of the police department were undecided today as to what steps they would take toward the suppression of further public speeches by Mrs. Kate Sadler, socialist speaker, who was arrested last night and later released on an angry mob by the arresting officers.

Mrs. Sadler had not been located early today and the police were inclined to ask the advice of the federal authorities before seeking her further.

State Council's Act. At a conference here yesterday of representatives of councils of defense of thirteen midwestern states, resolutions were adopted recommending that in states where proceedings are ready on foot to the price of coal to the ultimate consumer, such proceedings should continue to their full conclusion. The resolution also declared that no attempt should be made to bring about a conflict between federal and state authorities in regard to fixing coal prices. A force of investigators for the federal trade commission has been at work on the books of Illinois coal companies for some time for the purpose of obtaining figures on the cost of coal production and it was said today that data from twenty-six mines already has been compiled.

Mrs. Herman Kueller, formerly Miss Dorothea Bredemeyer, of 1406 Maude avenue, has been taken to the Lutheran hospital, where she submitted to an operation. Her condition is favorable.

NEED TIME TO LOOK INTO IT

The note suggests autonomy for Armenia, a re-arrangement of the colonies and the return of Alsace-Lorraine and Trent and Trieste to their respective nationalities. "Is it possible the central powers will consent to make peace imposing upon them such sacrifices and obliging them to pronounce, as Lloyd George said, the word 'restoration'?" asks the Corriere d'Italia.

The Giornale d'Italia says the central empires will not be obliged to announce their conditions of peace which the pope will communicate to the allies. An important feature of the papal note is that it is the first document of the Holy See addressed to the Italian government since the fall of temporal power. It is the first document asking Austria to evacuate Italian territories after the note Plus IX addressed to the emperor of Austria advising him to return Italian lands.

The text of the official note first appeared here in the Osservatore Romano, issued at noon. The Vatican organ is printed usually late in the evening. Thus the publication at noon today was a great exception which only occurred once before, in Nov. 1907, when the Vatican answered the note of M. Briand, then French premier, about the law of separation. The entire press reproduced the papal note expressing opinion that the allies have not beforehand agreed to the papal condition.

GERMAN OPINION DIVIDED.

Amsterdam, Aug. 16.—The Kreuz Zeitung of Berlin, a copy of which has been received here, says sympathy with the pope's wish for peace must disappear when it is seen that he has united himself with such conditions as restorations and no indemnities.

The Berlin Tagelichter Rundschau considers that the nature of the peace outlined by the pope must compel the central powers to refuse the offices of the pontiff. This newspaper says it fears the affair will have an unhappy influence not only in Austria but among the Catholics in Germany.

The Koelnische Zeitung reserves judgment on the proposal until the full text of the pope's note is obtained. Nevertheless, it considers the proposal to enter into negotiations on the basis of the pontiff's program should not be rejected. This newspaper asserts that it is not aware of the German government's attitude but that it believes logic prescribes that the government in conformity with its previous attitude should follow the path indicated by the pontiff.

Bevo
A BEVERAGE

You've enjoyed it at restaurants and other places—now you want your family and your guests to join you in the same pleasure. That's one of the joys of serving Bevo—then to hear your guests say how good it is—then to listen to their arguments as to just what it is. If they haven't seen the bottle they'll all agree that it is something else—if they have seen the bottle each will have a different explanation for its goodness. Bevo is nutritive—pure through pasteurization and sterilization—non-intoxicating, wholesome and thoroughly refreshing. Note—Bevo should be served cold.

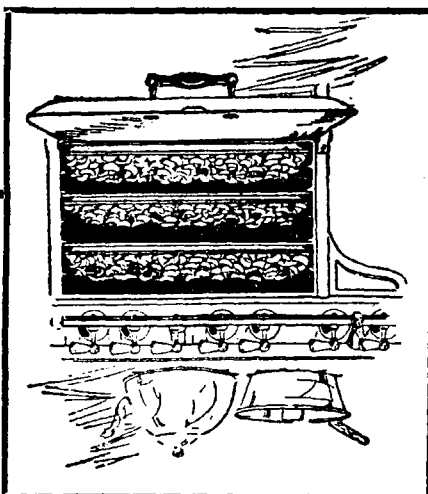

Get Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars, steamships, and other places where refreshing beverages are sold. Guard against substitutes—have the bottle opened in front of you.

Bevo is sold in bottles only—and is bottled exclusively by

A. H. PERFECT & CO.

Wholesale Dealers FORT WAYNE, IND.

A leading food expert says that nutriment and food value considered, dried fruits and vegetables are superior even to canned products.

The gas range makes the drying process simple and easy.

Line a wire dish drainer with heavy wrapping paper and spread the fruits or vegetables over it in a thin layer. Light the oven burner for five minutes, then turn it very low, place the drainer in the oven and leave the door open. Keep the heat at this point eight to ten hours, turning the vegetables once or twice during the drying process. Some things take longer to dry than others, but the amount of gas used in drying even the largest ones is very small.

Try this process in your own gas range.

Our canning booklet, "Prepare," contains complete and helpful information about canning and preserving.

ROSE OUTLASTS WAR; WINS SOLDIER BRIDE

Pretty Romance of Pretty
Girl and a Canadian
Fighting Man.

(Staff Correspondence.)

London, Ont., Aug. 17.—The boys of western Ontario were marching to war—in those first days when Canada stretched her right arm across the sea to help her mother country.

Home folks and visitors crowded the city of London, Ont., to bid the soldiers goodbye.

Stanley Snelling was a private in the Eighteenth Western Ontario battalion. No one had been there to say goodbye to him. He was thinking perhaps it was best that way—no heartaches, no regrets.

He looked up through the dust rising from the marching feet and saw a girl in an automobile ahead to his left, so close he could touch her as he passed. She had a big red rose in her hand.

As he came abreast she put it to her lips and tossed it to Private Snelling. "Bring it back to me," she said, "and—"

Private Snelling snatched off his cap. He looked at the girl in the machine. She leaned out and their faces were close. Then he said, "I will."

One night at St. Etienne, France, after a day in which apparently he yawned and belched up his torments, Private Snelling lay in a conquered German trench, fumbled in his shirt, pulled out the remnants of a red rose, faded, and found in it an inspiration to stick it through and somehow win back to western Ontario.

That happened more than once, as the Canadian troops swept onward. And finally, after one of the later engagements at Ypres, they took Private Snelling back to Canada, wounded.

When they cut away the first aid bandages at the billeting station in France and started to take his belongings to a locker, Snelling roused himself and yelled out:

"Hold on there! I want that rose. It stays with me."

In New Paltz, N. Y., a girl read the story of the sentimental Canadian who had carried a red rose two years in France until it could not be told from a ball of tissue paper.

Then there was a story from New Paltz, and a picture of Miss Caroline D. S. Peutz, and Private Snelling saw it. He's nearly well, now, and he knows the railroad fare to New Paltz.

Summer Complaint.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."—Advertisement.

FORT WAYNE'S POISON FACTORIES

are being shut down and transformed into first aids to Nature by the people of Fort Wayne for the production of Good Health through the daily use of

Whole Grain Wheat

The Breakfast-Dinner-Supper Food
PREPARED READY TO EAT

EVERY PERSON suffering from constipation is operating a veritable poison factory that is infecting the blood with toxins which are tearing down, undermining and seriously affecting the health and mental and physical well-being.

When food is not properly assimilated and when the organs of elimination are hampered or disordered, the partially digested and decaying food in the stomach and intestines produces poisonous matter that is absorbed by the membranes and the tiny blood vessels therein, to be carried throughout the entire human system.

Constipation is indicated by headaches, biliousness, lassitude, bloating, gas on the stomach, nausea, loss of appetite, a constant tired feeling, irritableness, melancholia, morbidness or "the blues," absence of ambition and energy, worry, lack of self confidence, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, vomiting, coated tongue, and bad breath.

The victim of constipation finds little to enjoy in life. His daily existence becomes a ceaseless round of pleasureless effort. The whole system becomes weakened and susceptible to attacks of disease. The victim of chronic constipation drags through life the hopeless prey of ills that sap his energy, destroy ambition and prevent the normal enjoyment of things intended by mother Nature for the rational enjoyment of mankind.

Whole Grain Wheat corrects constipation because of the bran it contains and because of its hydroscopic function—its affinity for water which it absorbs from the digestive canal, causing it to dilate, distend or expand the intestines, both large and small, thereby increasing or enhancing the peristaltic movement, resulting in the regular emptying of the intestinal tract.

It must be remembered that Whole Grain Wheat is a food—not a medicine. It banishes constipation simply because it digests so perfectly, and mechanically aids the digestion of other foods. Read on—and learn more about this truly wonderful food.

The Best Body, Brain and Brawn Builder

From babyhood to old age the human body is constantly wearing out and constantly renewing itself.

The human body contains sixteen essential chemical and mineral elements. It cannot survive nor carry on its normal functions without every one of these sixteen elements being constantly present in the proper proportion. The human body cannot rebuild without them.

Your body obtains these sixteen elements for rebuilding and replacing solely from the assimilation of food. If they are not in the food you eat, they cannot be taken out of it by the body.

Only two foods known to man possess all the sixteen chemical and mineral elements required daily by the human body to sustain normal nutrition and bodily growth. These two foods are whole milk and whole grain wheat.

Man can rise superior to the wear and tear of modern life with its nervous tension and bodily strain so long as he has a perfect food, and Nature has put every one of the needed elements of a perfect food into wheat and given it to man for his use and consumption.

Born of the sun and soil, gathering sweetness and strength from the rains and dews, garnering the precious minerals from the earth in the tiniest atoms, a grain of wheat comes to the feast of man fit for every life throbbing, carrying within itself the elements making possible perfect assimilation and perfect elimination, thus tending to develop and build up the body tissues, to make brain and brawn, bone and sinew, healthy blood and sound nerve cells.

But man must take wheat as it is. He must take it whole—in its entirety; not over-milled or refined; not demineralized, not devitalized, not denuded of any of its life-giving elements.

No Other Food Like Whole Grain Food

Whole Grain Wheat was originated and perfected by Dr. Albert Babendreer, a successful physician and chemist. It is totally different from any other food product on the market. It is in itself a perfectly balanced ration, alone capable of sustaining life indefinitely. Its preparation is probably the most important development in foods in the past century.

Whole Grain Wheat is a food for every member of the family—for the strong man, the weaker woman, the growing child. It meets squarely and satisfactorily the demand from the human body for substantial nutrition.

Whole Grain Wheat brings back the color to faded, anaemic cheeks. It puts vim and vigor in nerve and muscle. It makes for healthy skin and beautiful complexion. It arrests decay of teeth by supplying lime and silicon for tooth structure. It makes all foods taste better because it feeds the starving cells with life-giving elements that whet the appetite.

It assists you to avoid doctors' bills and makes you more fit and efficient for the struggle of life. It changes your viewpoint from depression to exaltation and good humor, because it removes the cause of depression and despair—constipation.

And—best of all, Whole Grain Wheat is tasty, delicious, appetizing and wholesome. Eat it as you do bread or potatoes, at every meal—three times a day. You will never grow tired of it. It tastes good anywhere, any time, any place.

Whole Grain Wheat is put up in hermetically sealed sanitary tins, keeping it fresh and palatable until wanted. You get ten full ounces, net weight, for ten cents—six ample servings, and every serving supplies all the nutritional elements, not merely one or two or some of them.

Buy Whole Grain Wheat today. Get it from your grocer. 256 Grocers in Fort Wayne have it. It is ready to eat as it comes from the can.

CAMOUFLAGE AGAIN.

Now, patrons, this camouflaging, isn't such a new. It's been cavorting around these quarters for some time, but it's never been labeled. The butcherer puts his wrists on the scale with the round steak, and the camouflaged wrists toil up also as round steak. The grocer camouflages the berries to look like a healthy boxful by putting the big boys on top and it looks like a quart box but it's been camouflaged; the bottom has been given a lift. The summer time is harvest time for camouflaging alive among the vacation Wilbur and Tessies—y'know, around the peach, etc.

A Wilbur hung up in noisy togs camouflages himself to some Tessie as a regular devil millionaire's son and she vice versa, and, when the twin weeks are over neither one lets loose on the camouflaging. He hikes back to reading gas meters and she hikes back to the glove stall.

CAMOUFLAGE SOME MORE.

What a merry bunch of camouflagers we all are. The first of the month when bills come and collectors knock on the front door some of us are camouflaged so that we are out to the collector.

Some camouflages themselves so that the other people just envy their easy sailing and wish they could afford a car and a maid, but most of the time the car isn't paid for and the house is mortgaged to get it and they just have their head out of the water when it's calm. Great stuff, this camouflaging.

Restaurant hash is another gas that gets camouflaged to a frazzle. Gristle, leftover meat from uneaten orders, etc., come under the nom de plume of "choice bits." Water is another article that's camouflaged much, by, as milk, oyster stew, circus lemonade and many other fine works.

THE PROFITS OF CO-OPERATION.

Last year the selling cost of the exchange was 4 1/2 cents per box, or 1 1/2 per cent. on the delivered value of the fruit.

Advertising expenses, 2 1/2 cents. Sub-exchange expenses, average, 91-100 of one cent a box.

The whole cost of the service to the grower, 7 and 64-100 cents a box. Of this the salaries of managers and all other employees of the exchange amounted to 74-100 of one cent a box. The cost of 77 selling agencies, with all the machinery, ran only to 2 31-100 cents per box.

The grower today gets the difference between the delivery price and 7 66-100 cents per box, as against 10 cents a box when the middleman ruled him. And the consumer pays little if any more now than then.

Pesky Bed Bugs

A MILLION BED BUGS. Just think, a 55c package of the new golden chemical P. D. O. (Pesky Devil's Ointment) is enough to make a quart and enough to kill a million bed bugs, no matter how large they may be, where they came from, their age, color or sex, and at the same time leaves a coating on their eggs and prevents hatching. CUT THIS OUT. This new chemical can be had at any first-class drug store. This package makes a quart of P. D. O. and will be shipped to you a barrel of old-fashioned bug killer. Don't let anybody impose upon your intelligence by offering you something else. Insist on what you ask for, then you'll have what doctors prescribe. KILLS FLEAS ON DOGS. It's fun to see the fleas drop off your pet dog. KILLS CHICKEN LICE. No use for your chickens to have lice. A few packages mixed makes a gallon of chicken lice killer. Your druggist has it, or else get it for you. Get Chemical Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.

VETERANS FROM HERE TO ATTEND REUNION

Will Go to Angola August
29-30—Monument Will Be Unveiled.

Fort Wayne veterans who served in the Forty-Fourth regiment, Indiana, together with veterans of Seventy-Fourth and One Hundredth Infantry have been invited to attend the two days celebration and reunion at Angola, August 29 and 30, at which time the new soldiers' monument, a tribute in marble and bronze, will be unveiled. Survivors of these three fighting regiments of the civil war which saw hard fighting under Grant, Sherman, Rosecrans and Thomas will get together to discuss those days and enjoy a visit with each other.

Some of the old soldiers who will go from here are: Captain W. A. Kelsey, John Kress, Jasper Edsall, W. A. Thomas, Alexander Ormiston, William Engle and Allen Daugherty. Daugherty the last named, had one of his legs shot off at the second day's fighting of the battle of Shiloh. Lieut. Col. Philip Grund, of West DeWald street, has the honor of being ranking surviving officer of the civil war service.

Many Fort Wayne veterans were in the famous 100th Indiana, known as the persimmon regiment, which saw the hardest kind of fighting during the war. Commander William Kennerk of Sion S. Pass post, G. A. R., served three years during the rebellion in the ranks of the Seventy-Fourth Indiana.

FIRST PICTURES OF RUSSIAN WOMEN'S LEAGUE OF DEATH!

DETAILS OF A CAUSE CELEBRE IN OLD ROME

War Advocate Takes a Terrible Vengeance on an Active Pacifist.

ROME, Aug. 17.—The fashionable crowd at the cafe on the Corso Umberto were gazing up at the huge screen on the building opposite, where pictures of the celebrities of the day—Cordona, Sonnino, Joffre, Wilson, Lloyd George—were being thrown on the screen. It is the chief diversion these hot afternoons. Joffre was popular and Wilson had his admirers. Then came the picture of a man with a great beard. This caused tremendous laughter. But the very climax of demonstrative approval came when the picture of the thin-faced man with a workman's cap on his head was thrown on the screen. There was a huge ovation for this strange face.

"And who is the man with the beard?" asked the American visitor. "Why that is Maffie. Is it possible you don't know Maffie?"

"And who is the man in the workman's cap?" "That is the carpenter, Tordelli. You don't mean to say you haven't heard of Tordelli. They are the great Italian characters of the day." Maffie is a member of the Italian chamber of deputies, who made a speech in favor of peace, saying it was really not to Italy's interest to carry on the war. Tordelli was for war, and felt that the peace speech must be rebuked. He accordingly waylaid Maffie on the tramway as he came from the chamber. Maffie had an enormous beard which was his pride and best known characteristic. As Maffie stepped on the car, Tordelli deftly operated a pair of scissors before the surprised deputy knew what was happening. Then with a shock of beard in his hand Tordelli disappeared while Maffie was left beardless.

Tordelli was arrested and his trial soon began. All Rome became interested, the question of peace and war divided sentiment into two camps. When the trial came all Italy awaited the fate of the carpenter. He produced the beard at the trial, and it was duly entered by the court as an exhibit. Thereupon Maffie applied for the return of the beard, but the court held it had been separated from him and was now in possession of the state. Tordelli suddenly became a popular hero, as defender of the war, while Maffie had champions for his cause and his beard. Their pictures are the features of all screens.

Bilious Attacks. You wonder what upset your stomach. Never felt better in your life yesterday—now you have a bad bilious attack. Cure that first, then look for the cause. Keep quiet, abstain from food for one day, take three of Chamberlain's Tablets. Drink plenty of water. This will clean the fermenting food and bile out of your stomach, tone up your liver and move your bowels. You will soon be all right again. If you have these bilious attacks at irregular intervals, abstain from coffee and red meats and you may avoid them.—Advertisement.

RESUME LOSING WAYS; CHIEFS DROP SECOND TO MUSKEGON

Allen and Warmoth, New
Addition, Engage in Pitchers' Contest.

The fast pace set by Dayton is the only thing that has kept Fort Wayne from going into the lead in the race for the cellar championship of the Central league. The Chiefs maintained their usual gait yesterday by dropping another game to Muskegon by the close score of 3 to 2 and while the home club put up a game fight while it lasted the result was the same old story. Despite the fact that Dayton did not play yesterday, thus not having a chance to lose, Fort Wayne could not out the Vets from last place.

Two sidewheelers, Allen for Muskegon, and Warmoth, the Chiefs' latest acquisition in the pitching department, engaged in a hurling battle which the new addition to the force might have won had his teammates laid on a little heavier with their bats. With one out in the second Hunter singled. Kirby walked and took second while Hunter was being run down between second and third base. A double by Niederkorn scored Kirby. Allen was out, ending the scoring for Muskegon.

The Chiefs tied the score in the fifth inning. Warmoth drew a pass and went to second on a sacrifice hit by Breaux. Warmoth went to third on Miller's out and scored when Herndon made a bobble of Smith's easy one toward third base. Smith was caught at second trying to stretch his scratch hit.

The Muskies scored again in the seventh. Hunter singled to center. Breaux made a fast play, but his throw to first was not accurate. Kirby drew a base on balls. Hunter took third on Niederkorn's sacrifice. Kirby being held at first. Allen fanned and Hunter scored on a throw to second to break up Kirby's steal. Herndon struck out.

Each side scored in the eighth for the final count of the game. A high fly between Glockson and Kelly resulted in neither one of them getting it and Brubaker got on with one down. Brennekan flew to Siegfried. Spas singled to right and Brubaker scored when Glockson juggled the ball. Hunter flew out.

The locals got their second run of the contest in their half of the eighth. Breaux hit the first ball pitched for a two-bagger. Miller followed with a single and Breaux went to third. Miller was out trying to steal second. Smith sacrificed, Breaux crossing the plate. Hoffman struck out, ending the Chiefs' scoring.

Warmoth let the Muskies down hard in the first half of the ninth, only three men facing him. The Chiefs tried to put over the necessary run or runs and gave off defeat, but it was no use. Siegfried singled and reached third on two successive outs. Roberts struck out and left Smith stranded, ending the game.

WANTS TO GO TO WAR.

Wilbur, Neb., Aug. 17.—George Shestak, catcher for the Denver club of the Western league, has been drafted for the new national army. His number came out of the bowl at Washington as 181. Word has been sent to him to come here for medical examination. It is understood that he will ask the exemption board to allow him to be examined in Denver as he is anxious to finish the season. He wrote home that he would not claim exemption, saying: "Why should I stay here when the rest of the boys are over fighting in the trenches."

WOMAN'S TENNIS TITLE TO GO TO THE BEST GUESSER.

MARY BROWNE

(By Paul Purman.)
When Miss Bolla Bjurstedt meets Miss Mary K. Browne for the world's tennis championship Aug. 20 one of the greatest games of wits ever seen on American tennis courts will be played.
Victory will fall to the star who is able to outguess and outwit her adversary.
These two champions are about evenly matched so far as the mechanical points of the game are concerned.
At a slashing drive game the Norwegian has no equal. If Miss Browne should play her in that style Miss Bjurstedt would have pretty clear sailing.
And that is just what the Californian will try not to do.
Her own game is one of deliberate science, of placing her returns in the most difficult parts of the court.
This is difficult to do against one who has the driving ability of Miss Bjurstedt to win, it will be up to Miss Browne to return easily.

Honors between the two starts have been about even in the contests they have been playing for the Red Cross, but in the games Miss Browne has won she has compelled her opponent to abandon her slashing style and play the sort of a game made to order for herself.
Miss Bjurstedt has always had trouble handling a slow ball with a short lary sound. The power of her stroke is apt to make her drive into the net or out of bounds.

Miss Browne is at her best using the slow, easy service and returns and in using them she has Miss Bjurstedt of her balance, as the Norwegian champion is robbed of a great deal of her effectiveness when she does not use her speed.

Sharkey's Staging a Finish Fight in Court

Mrs. Tom Sharkey and her husband, whom she has sued for divorce.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 17.—All is not well along the matrimonial Wabash of Tom Sharkey, ex-heavyweight pugilist. Sharkey's wife has sued him for divorce and temporary alimony has been granted the wife.

Mrs. Sharkey claims Tom was cruel to her. Tom says another woman gained influence over his "little girl" and kept her out late at nights. Sharkey, who is 23 years older than his wife, has known her since she was three years of age. They separated last July.

Sharkey has been acting as manager for his former mighty ring foe, Jim Jeffries, in the saloon business here. Testimony indicated that Sharkey was being paid $50 a week by Jeff, who spends practically all of his time on his dairy ranch at Burbank, a suburb of this city.

BROKEN ARM KEPT SCHIFF OUT OF WAR

Chicago, Aug. 17.—All that prevented enlistment of Johnny Schiff, the Californian featherweight as boxing instructor at the Great Lakes naval training station was a cauliflower ear, a fractured nose and a broken arm.

"Huh," said Johnny, "if they're going to reject baxers for little things like that they'll have a hard time getting experienced pug." He said that the arm has healed and was better than ever. The Californian served a year as boxing instructor of the 148th overseas battalion of Canada. He broke his arm in the course of duty and was given an honorable discharge. Otherwise he might have shared the regiment which, he says, was all but wiped out in the fighting on the western front. Schiff was in the hospital when the regiment sailed.

TY COBB STARTS EPIDEMIC OF HOME RUNS AT POLO GROUNDS

When Ty Cobb hit a home run off Urban Shocker at the Polo grounds Aug. 3 he started an epidemic of four base clouts which perhaps has never been equalled on one ball field in the same length of time.

Game after game produced one or more homers, even a pitcher breaking into the column, and the epidemic resulted in the New York Yankees grabbing off half as many homers in a week than they had in all the rest of the season.

In the week eleven four-base wallops were collected at the New York park. In one game the only runs made were counted by home runs.

Cobb started the epidemic Aug. 3 and the next day collected another off Caldwell. The next day did not produce any homers, but on the next Wallop Pipp and Home Run Baker each added one to their strings. Both were made off George Cunningham, of the Tigers.

Aug. 8 was a red letter day. In a double-header between the Yankees and Indians four players hit circuit smashes, Ray Fisher, a pitcher who hardly knew what a home run was, getting the first off Bagby. In the second game Grane and Smith each got to Caldwell for circuit drives and later Caldwell came back with a homer off Coveleskie.

The next day Tim Hendryx connected for a circuit drive and the following day Speaker and Smith each did their bit.

EMERGENCY MONEY IN NORTHERN FRANCE

Amsterdam, Netherlands, Aug. 17.—Emergency money has long been circulating in large quantities in occupied northern France. It is all of paper and similar material, varying from stiff cardboard to parchment. Here it is printed in highly artistic, ornamental style; there it merely bears the communal stamp, with the mayor's signature. General Quartermaster Hahndorf is now endeavoring to introduce some order into the situation, according to a frontier correspondent, and publishes a list of the approved notes. All paper money below 25 centimes (5 American cents) is invalid. Non-approved notes must be exchanged before the announced date.

Notes of the towns of Bapaume, Ham and Novon, taken by the entente armies, naturally fall in the category of those which must be withdrawn. A penalty of from six months to two years' imprisonment is prescribed for the counterfeiting, circulation and use

"THAT COON WASN'T WITH ME." SAID ANNA

But Charles Davis, Also Colored, Pleads Guilty to Charge

A conflicting story was told in police court Friday morning in regards to the happenings of events as they transpired in a house on Holman street Thursday night when two men and two women, all colored, were arrested. Anna Kinney and Charles Davis were charged with furnishing liquor without a license. Steve Polson was held as a witness.

On the stand the Kinney woman said: "That coon wasn't with me," but Charles told the story differently, as did Steve Polson. The men declared that Charles borrowed $2 from Steve. The Davis lad who said he was only 18 years of age, pleaded guilty.

The case against the Kinney woman and the Davis lad were continued until Saturday morning, both being held under a bond of $50. The Polson man was held under a bond of $25 as a witness.

Grace Stewart declared that she did not sell any liquor to the men, but both the men stated that they bought a bottle of beer each for 30 cents apiece. Grace drew a fine of $75 and costs.

Leroy and Cecil Dickerson were arrested Thursday night on Calhoun street on a charge of operating an automobile with the muffler open. Their cases were continued indefinitely in police court Friday.

William Donlin, charged with vagrancy will re-appear on Aug. 20. Gust Eix, a drunk, was let go.

James Hodges, charged with drunkenness, said he had enlisted in the army and went out celebrating before leaving town. His case was continued until Saturday. In the meantime investigation will be made as to his enlistment.

Herman Ikemeyer drew a fine of $1 and costs on a charge of drunkenness but his mother paid the fine and he was let go.

Coal Barons Balk; Illinois Will Fix Prices

OPERATORS REFUSE TO CO-OPERATE TO ESTABLISH RELIEF

Repudiate Agreement and Governor's
Coal Controller Will Fix Prices
and Mines May Be Seized.

LOWDEN EXPECTS BARONS TO COMPLY

Chicago, Aug. 17.—After a declaration by a representative of the Illinois coal operators that they had concluded not to co-operate, Justice Orrin N. Carter, state coal controller, today began hearings with a view to fixing reasonable prices.

Attorney Ralph Crews, for the operators, reviewed the situation, including steps taken for federal control and the Illinois strike situation and concluded with the statement that in view of these facts that the operators had concluded not to co-operate.

Levy Mayer, chairman of the law and legislation committee of the Illinois state council of defense, asserted that the operators had repudiated their agreement. Justice Carter said: "I shall not comment upon the action of the operators. We will proceed with the hearing and in the end I will fix prices."

As originally contemplated, a committee of the operators would have been empowered to bind the coal producers to abide by any price fixed by the controller. At a meeting a week ago a committee of operators agreed to be bound, but it speedily developed that they could not control the rank and file. "I am informed," Governor Lowden said, "that the coal operators assembled in Chicago intended to violate their agreement. I have advised Justice Carter to proceed with the hearing to fix fair maximum prices for Illinois. When these are fixed I shall expect the operators to comply."

Among the friends of the governor it was said he is determined to seize the mines if the operators remain obdurate. Committees were present at the hearing.

Summary of the Day's War News

The Germans made violent and repeated efforts last night to regain important positions recently wrested from them by the French and British. They gained some small advantages on the Verdun front, otherwise the only result of their attacks was to add to the heavy losses which they have sustained in their fierce local offensive operations of the last few days.

The British report three counter attacks against their new lines near Loos. At the second effort the Germans gained slight successes at points, but were driven back again as the third assault failed to shake the British defense. Heavy artillery fighting is reported in the Ypres sector where the British after gaining ground in yesterday's attack on a nine mile front were finally pressed back.

The attacks on the French were made at widely separated points. In Belgium the Germans attempted to recapture the ground taken by the

FRENCH DENY GUNS FIRED ST. QUENTIN FAMOUS CATHEDRAL

French Front in France, Aug. 17.—The fire in the St. Quentin cathedral was first observed about 6 o'clock Wednesday night by sentinels. They were startled to see flames breaking from the famous cathedral and soon the entire structure was ablaze. The fire continued to light up the town and surrounding country until 2 o'clock in the morning. As it died down it was seen that the steep roof had fallen in.

Everything but the walls must be destroyed. The cause is unknown. Certainly, it was not due to the French fire. There was little bombardment last night and when the correspondent watched columns of smoke float away on a light wind the landscape was singularly peaceful.

Prisoners say the town has lately been pillaged by officers and men who are sending many stolen valuables to Germany.

Belief is Firm That They

A Pacific Port, Aug. 17.—Five ships, three American, one British and one Japanese, are overdue at this port, and have been practically given up by their owners and agents.

Mariners say they believe the vessels have been destroyed by time bombs placed in the cargoes by enemy agents.

This theory was strengthened today when a sailor employed near this port told of having seen fragile bottles containing acid taken from cargo powder cases where they had been placed in such a manner that the breaking of the bottles would have ignited the powder.

The overdue vessels are the American schooner Winslow, American sailing ship R. C. Slade, the American schooner Betugo, the Japanese freighter Koto Hira, and the British freighter Wairuna.

"YES, RUSSIA WILL FIGHT!"

So Says Charles Edward Russell in His First Article After His Return from Russia With the Root Commission—The Greatest Danger Russia Has to Face is Peace Talk in the United States.

CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL, famous writer for the Daily Sentinel has spent three months in Russia as a member of the American commission, which was headed by Elihu Root. His opportunities for observation and investigation of Russian conditions were unparalleled, as all the resources of the provisional government were placed at his disposal. The commission has just returned to this country, and Russell, after closing his immediate official business, has started to write the truth about Russia. His first article is printed today; watch for others.

BY CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL.
(Copyright, 1917, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Will Russia fight?

Of the thousands of eager questions plumped at the Root commission, of which I was a member, since it came back to American soil, this has outnumbered all the others together.

Will Russia fight?
Yes! Russia will fight! She will fight with courage, skill, persistence and success. She will put up a strictly first class article of fight and she will win with it.

Provided only that she gets any kind of a fair chance and that the

Charles
Edward
Russell

United States of America will let her fight.
I find that millions of us seem to have this whole Russian business wrong end to. We think, for instance, that if Russia is not now pushing the war vigorously the reason is that the Russians have a great, broad streak of yellow in them—yellow and not much else.

This is the most monstrous fake and lie that was ever believed by one man.

Petrograd, Aug. 17.—Further details are published concerning the removal of Nicholas Romanoff from the former imperial palace at Tsarskoe Selo. When the train which was to carry the former emperor arrived it bore prominent placards, and contained one armored car and on the platform of each car were four soldiers with fixed bayonets. The former emperor at the last moment, says one newspaper, begged to be allowed to reside in the Crimea, but this was refused.

As the train pulled out the soldiers shouted derisively at the former ruler of Russia.

The new location of the prisoners remains a mystery, but the impression grows that it will be Siberia. The investigation, the organ of the council of workers' and soldiers' delegates, protests against the secrecy surrounding the former emperor's removal. It says it indicates the government's distrust of the people and the insecurity of the revolution.

At Tsarskoe Selo the palace is being overhauled. The rooms occupied by Nicholas have been sealed up. It is said that

Before the communication goes forward the views of the entente governments will be ascertained. This necessarily will take some time owing to delay in transmitting messages by cable. The pontiff's peace note, text of which reached the state department by cable from the London foreign office late yesterday, is now before the president. He probably will give it close study before taking up the subject with Secretary Lansing.

DEPARTMENT OF WAR GIVES NEW LIFE TO SALOON

Washington, Aug. 17.—The war department has modified the order prohibiting a saloon or bar within half a mile of a military camp so as not to be effective where purely temporary camps are concerned.

The modification was caused by a situation in Kansas City, where many saloons and leading hotel bars in the city were closed because some troops were being mobilized in convention hall.

Under the new ruling such temporary mobilization of troops will not be a cause for closing bars and officers will be depended on to restrain their men.

TROOPS MAY BE SENT WEST FOR STRIKE SERVICE

Washington Government Will Employ
Force to Keep Big War Industries
Moving There.

EXTREME MEASURES FOR I. W. W. BROOD

Washington, Aug. 17.—Sending troops to Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho to keep war industries moving and to check disorders, is regarded by officials as a possibility in the near future should the threatened I. W. W. strike attain serious proportion and the civil authorities, state and federal, in the affected area, be unable to meet the situation adequately.

The departments of justice and labor, the board of mediation and conciliation, the food administration and other government agencies were studying with some apprehension today the situation in the northwest and were prepared, it was said, to take immediate steps to meet any development.

Secretary Wilson, of the labor department, returning to Washington after an absence of several days, received reports on the situation and began to determine if the services of his department could be utilized in avoiding the threatened strike. Conciliators of the department already are in the districts affected. The food administration is concerned with reports that the strike might retard harvesting and that damage had been done to fruit and vegetables in California which are needed for rationing. The board of mediation and conciliation while without direct representation in the territory affected is prepared to act quickly in case the threatened strike should result in interruption to train service. Department of justice investigators are inclined to view the situation with some apprehension and United States district attorney in the four districts mentioned are authorized to act quickly in case of disorder. So far as the department of justice is concerned only an overt act can result in action.

Officials unite in saying there will be no half measures by the government with persons attempting to hinder industries essential to prosecuting the war. Extreme measures, it was said, would be resorted to without hesitation and quickly, in view of the nature of the demands made by the I. W. W., including the release of all members of its organization at present in prison in the four states, it was thought likely that the strike would be called. The demand is regarded by officials here as preposterous, and one that could not possibly be acceded to.

CHASING THE I. W. W.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 17.—Declaring their belief that industrial workers of the world are responsible for recurring labor difficulties at the plant of the Great Lakes Engineering works, near River Rouge, a suburb, authorities of that village have issued notice that every member of the organization must leave immediately. Those who fail to obey the order, it was announced, will be rounded up and placed in jail.

Three strikes have been called and adjusted in the ship yards in the last ten days. Although the company recently granted a general increase of Copenhagen, Aug. 17.—The German government's attitude on so important a matter as the peace proposal of Pope Benedict can only be made known after the most careful deliberation, particular as its decision can only be taken in full accord with German's allies. A statement to this effect has been communicated by the German foreign office to the German press.

A TRUE RESTORATION.

Rome, Aug. 17.—"The pope's peace proposals are true restoration in the sense of Lloyd-George's last speech and constitute a peace as outlined by President Wilson while they also correspond to peace without annexations or indemnities supported in other quarters," says the Corriere d'Italia, the semi-official organ of the vatican.

The paper adds that the pope's note does not propose to return to the status quo and suggests the restoration of "the old kingdom of Poland" as it was before being dismembered by the three empires.

RELIEF DISTRIBUTES OVER $1,800,000

Pennsylvania Benefit Association Breaks Record in Semi-Annual Payments

In the first six months of 1917 the relief funds of the Pennsylvania railroad system lines both east and west of Pittsburgh paid a sum of $1,856,044 to employees and their families in death and disability benefits.

The relief fund of the lines east of Pittsburgh was established Feb. 15, 1886, and altogether has paid to members and their families $35,857,702 in benefits. The payments made by the relief fund of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh during the first six months of 1917 amounted to $559,973, of which $187,513 was for death benefits and $372,459 for disability benefits.

Since the fund was established on the lines west, July 1, 1889, it has paid out to members and their families benefits totaling $13,894,721.

The report shows that on July 1, 1917, there were in the service of the directly operated lines of the Pennsylvania system, east and west of Pittsburgh, 238,571 employees, of whom 196,599 were members of the relief fund.

YEAR BEGINS SEPTEMBER 1.

The new year of the Electro-Technic club will begin September 1, and that date will mark the inauguration of a membership campaign which will recapture in energy and probably in results anything the club has yet undertaken in that line. The campaign will be conducted in part at least on lines similar to the membership campaign last year. There will be two captains, who will select their aids from among the most active members of the club. Fred Duryee is chairman of the membership committee.

GOING TO THE ENCAMPMENT.

Tomorrow night some of the veterans of the war of the rebellion will leave for Boston to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R. The travel there is light this year and those who have to buy tickets will put up full fare for them, for the railroads are not making special rates. One party from Fort Wayne will consist of Hon. S. M. Hench, Joseph Kieley, Capt. S. S. Kelker, John Koonitz, Louis Hoopengartner and Joseph Corlette, which will leave tomorrow.

TO HAVE TWO WEEKS OUTING.

General Foreman E. B. Hughes, of the Pennsylvania round house, and Alachinist A. R. Morelli, of the Pennsylvania tool room, have taken a two weeks' leave on the Rathenber cottage, Spring Beach, Rome City, and will take their families there tomorrow. They anticipate a good deal of pleasure in fishing, as each is an expert in that line. During the absence of Mr. Hughes, Assistant Foreman John E. Hebert will have charge of affairs at the round house.

URBAN ARNOLD PROMOTED.

A post card from Urban Arnold, who is at Fort Benjamin Harrison, brought greetings to his former associates in the Pennsylvania trainmaster's office this morning; also the information that Mr. Arnold had been promoted from private to corporal in the medical department. He enlisted in the regular army May 2 and has been at the training camp since. He writes that he expects to go to France in two months.

GOES TO JOIN HIS FAMILY.

General Manager F. S. Huntling, of the General Electric works, left yesterday afternoon, over the Pennsylvania, for Crawford House, N. H., to join his family and enjoy two weeks of rest. The family have been at the resort for some time and they will return to Fort Wayne with Mr. Huntling. Crawford House, N. H., is located in the White Mountains and is quite a famous summer resort.

TO DAKOTA FOR HEALTH.

Leonard Newport, of the O. K. machine shop, left yesterday for South Dakota, expecting to stay two or three months if he finds the climate and other conditions congenial. Mr. Newport has been ailing for some time and goes west in the hope of receiving physical benefits.

HAD HIS LEG BRUISED.

While handling a piece of metal at one of the steam hammers at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop yesterday, the handle of the tongs flew around and delivered a fierce blow on the leg of Hammersmith Edgar E. Szink. No bones were broken, but the leg was bruised and sprained and Mr. Szink will be unable to work for a few days.

MACHINIST PAINFULLY HURT.

When the overalls worn by Machinist E. C. Rehling, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, caught in the air motor he was operating the limb was drawn against the rapidly revolving piece and the flesh bruised and the leg sprained. The garment gave way, releasing Mr. Rehling before any more serious injury was sustained.

TO PITTSBURGH FOR TEN DAYS.

Charles Laubscher, Ed Strutchen and William Galtland, of the Pennsylvania toolroom, will compose a party which will leave this evening for Pittsburgh. They will be gone ten days and will visit all points of interest in western Pennsylvania.

L. G. Hines left today for Chicago to spend a few days with his brother, Dorsey Hines, formerly employed at the General Electric works.

A. F. Welch, fractional horse power engineer at the General Electric works, went to Chicago this morning on business for the company.

Stenographer Ross Kennedy, of the Pennsylvania storeroom, who is out on a vacation this week, is visiting his sister at Detroit.

Train Dispatcher W. R. Richardson, of the Pennsylvania, has resumed work after a short illness on account of sickness.

T. E. McCorkley has been transferred from the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop to the carpenter department under Foreman Henry Shuster.

Machinist J. A. Chapman resumed work at the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning, after an absence of eight weeks on account of sickness.

Joseph Schrimp, machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, who had an eye hurt several days ago, has recovered and is reported for duty.

W. F. Snyder has decided to return to his old home, Pierceton, Ind., to farm. He was employed in the Pennsylvania shops awhile, but didn't like it and he quit this morning.

Foreman F. C. Meyers, of the Pennsylvania vice shop, reported for duty this morning. He was off yesterday on account of the funeral of the late ex-Mayor Henry P. Scherer.

E. Seip, a springmaker, and F. W. Ranner, a hammerman, at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, were unable to show up for duty this morning on account of sickness.

H. A. Robinson, for two years employed as a wireman under Foreman F. G. Duryee, at the General Electric works, will resign tomorrow to return to his trade, that of a stereotyper.

Tomorrow Joseph Johnson, machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, will attend a family reunion at Van Wert, O., where there will be a gathering of several hundred people, all related by blood or marriage ties.

Tender Repairman G. Eahr, of the Pennsylvania, who had a foot injured nine days ago by a heavy bar of iron falling upon the member, reported for work this morning. He was in the hospital a week.

Machinist James Majors now resides on Savilla street. He had been living on Broadway, but moved into new quarters yesterday. Mr. Majors, who is employed at the Pennsylvania shops, laid off to assist in moving.

Charles Schmidt, chief clerk in the down town office of the Pennsylvania shops, is an uncle to Miss Emma Schmidt, the young lady who lost her life in a street car accident at Jefferson and Lafayette streets last night. He is off duty until after the funeral.

Machinist C. L. McElfatrick, of the Pennsylvania shops, whose injuries, received Wednesday evening, were mentioned by The Sentinel yesterday, was able to get down to the shop this morning, but it will be several days before he will be able to resume work.

Foreman P. J. Scheid, of the Pennsylvania car machine shop, will be host for the next two or three weeks of his sister, Mrs. Mary Snyder, and two members of his family, of Lancaster, Pa. They will arrive here this evening.

The Bellevue Gazette says: "Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Harper, of Fort Wayne are the delighted parents of a baby daughter, Muriel Eileen, born Saturday, August 11. Mr. Harper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harper, of East Main street and a former resident of this city."

Dr. J. M. Dinnin, chief surgeon of the Nickel Plate, is out this week on semi-annual inspection of the water supply at the depots and on the trains. Dr. Dinnin looks after this matter carefully twice a year and it is safe to say that no sickness among patrons or employees has arisen from the drinking water.

W. L. Wilt, motive power accountant of the Pennsylvania lines west, who has been here on business and to visit his family, went to Chicago this morning on business connected with his office and will return here Monday.

Mr. Wilt, it is understood, is preparing to organize a clerical force of forty-one men.

John Green, a tester at the General Electric works, has gone to Columbus, Ohio, his old home, to visit the folks and attend to some private business. He was one of the fourteen applicants for army position and wants to see his folks before reporting at the training camp August 27, according to instructions.

C. H. Matson, assistant to Factory Superintendent A. E. Barnes, of the General Electric works, and Henry Stahlhut, foreman of the maintenance department of the factory, went to Adams lake yesterday. They will divide the time between hunting ducks and fishing, in company with D. P. McDonald, who went there last Monday.

Raymond Hoffman, foreman of the testing department of the General Electric works, is proud of the patriotic spirit that has prevailed in that department. Fifteen of the employees of the department have answered the call of the government and this is a pretty big per cent of the whole. Of course, as rapidly as possible the vacancies arising out of enlistment have been filled, but still the department is more or less crippled and will soon be more crippled, for there are men who have been accepted and are awaiting a call to the colors. There are less than fifty on the department pay rolls.

Patterson-Fletcher's Great Half-Price Sale is attracting larger crowds every day. Open tomorrow night until 10 o'clock.

DEATH DUE TO FALL

DOWN THE STAIRS

J. H. P. Hughart Was Visiting His Brother When Accident Happened.

The death of the late President J. H. P. Hughart, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad company, was due to paralysis, following a fall downstairs at his brother's home, which injured his spine, at 9:30 o'clock, Tuesday night. He was taken to the Biolog hospital, where death occurred Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Hughart and daughter, Miss Isabel Hughart, were at Nantucket Island, Mass., at the time the accident occurred and were unable to reach Grand Rapids before Mr. Hughart died.

Mr. Hughart is survived by the widow and four children—J. H. P. Hughart, Jr., a cadet at Annapolis; W. Oden Hughart III, Miss Polly Hughart and Miss Isabel Hughart, besides two brothers, William O. Hughart, Jr., and Oliver O. P. Hughart, of Porto Rico, now in New York, and two sisters, Mrs. W. S. Howard and Mrs. George H. Penrose, wife of Col. Penrose, of Washington.

Mr. Hughart was born in Pittsburgh, December 1, 1854, his parents being Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hughart. The father was elected president of the G. R. & I. in 1874, when Grand Rapids was the northern terminus of the road. The following year he moved his family to that city, where J. H. P. Hughart began his railway career as his father's secretary. Later he was paymaster, then secretary of the company and assistant to his father and under the latter's death in 1899 he was made general manager. Three years ago he was elected president.

In recent years he was in ill health and the active management of the road devolved upon William B. Wood, while Mr. Hughart retained the executive office and membership on the board.

Funeral Saturday Afternoon. Local officials of the G. R. & I. received notice this morning that the funeral services of the late President Hughart would be held at the home of the brother, W. O. Hughart, in Grand Rapids, at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It is presumed that the remains will be taken to Pittsburgh for interment, but no information on that point was given in the notice concerning the funeral services. Supt. B. H. Hudson is just recovering from a severe illness and will not be able to attend the funeral services. Division officials who will go to Grand Rapids Saturday morning on train No. 11 for that purpose are Division Engineer R. G. Jones, Trainmaster F. S. Fox, Division Operator J. F. Betts, Road Foreman of Engines A. L. Lophshire, Master Carpenter H. M. Large and Chief Clerk C. H. Tonsing. Some of the Pennsylvania division officials, who knew and admired Mr. Hughart, will also attend the funeral.

What to Use and Avoid On Faces that Perspire

Skin, to be healthy, must breathe. It also must perspire—must expel through the pores, its share of the body's waste material. Certain creams and powders clog the pores, interfering with elimination and breathing, especially during the heated period. If more women understood this, there would be fewer self-runed complexion. This remarkable substance actually absorbs a bad skin, also unclogging the pores. Result: The fresher, younger under-skin is permitted to breathe and to show itself. The exquisite new complexion gradually peeps out, free from any appearance of artificiality. Obtain an ounce of mercerized wax from your druggist and try it. Apply nightly like cold cream for a week or two, washing it off mornings. To remove wrinkles, here's a marvelously effective treatment, which also acts naturally and harmlessly. Dissolve an ounce of powdered sassafras in a half pint witch hazel and use as a wash lotion.

Superfluous Hair Now Removed Root and All! (New and Instantaneous Home Method.)

A boon to women troubled with superfluous hair is the new electrolysis process. It is totally unlike the electrolysis, electrical and other methods heretofore employed for the removal of hairy growth. It is the only thing that enables one to remove the hair completely—roots and all—in one's own home, without the assistance of an expert. The result cannot be doubted, for the user sees the hair-roots with her own eyes. A stick of phenacetin, with easy directions, can be had at any drug store. It is entirely harmless (a child could safely eat it), odorless and non-irritating. Always sold under a money-back guarantee. It is an instantaneous method, and so thorough that the skin is left perfectly smooth and hairless, bearing not the least evidence of its former disfigurement.

VAN WERT BOY HURT.

Van Wert, Ind., Aug. 17.—George Allen, aged about fourteen years, son of Frank Allen, of Liberty township, sustained a number of cuts on the face and head and numerous bruises in an accident Wednesday afternoon. The lad was riding a bicycle on the Rockford road, several miles south of town, when an automobile driven by Marion Slane, of Pleasant township, passed. The lad grabbed a hand-hold on the auto and coasted along. He released his hold and in an effort to regain it threw the bicycle off balance. Young Allen was plunged onto the roadway and fell directly in the pathway of another automobile. He was dragged about ten feet before the car could be brought to a standstill. The lad was removed to the home of J. L. Corathers, for emergency treatment, and later was taken to his own home. His injuries are considered to be not of a serious nature.

TO ADDRESS STATE

FRANCHISE LEAGUE

Mrs. R. E. Edwards at Reception to Be Held at the University Club.

Foremost among the Indiana women who are doing their bit in the world's work as well as attending to the myriad duties of wifehood, motherhood and home-making is Mrs. Richard E. Edwards, of Peru, president of the Woman's Franchise League of Indiana.

Mrs. Edwards is also a business woman, in addition to being the chief executive of the Woman's Franchise League of Indiana, which is the most active woman's organization in the state, largely because it reflects the brilliant, buoyant personality of its leader.

When President Wilson recognized the existence of a state of war with Germany, Mrs. Edwards offered the services of every member of the Woman's Franchise League to the state of Indiana for war work. The organization which had 85 branches when Mrs. Edwards took the presidency last April, now has 250 active leagues.

Mrs. Edwards feels that full woman suffrage will come as a war measure. For the present she urges that every woman give the full measure of service to her country, while the Franchise League continues to organize and to strengthen its forces that the use of its splendid organization may be placed at the full disposal of the state or nation.

Mrs. Edwards is the daughter of Mrs. Thomas Arthur Stuart, of Lafayette, one of the best known club women in the state. She was graduated from Smith college, and after her marriage to Mr. Edwards, she spent six years in Menominee and Sault Ste. Marie, where her husband was engaged in the lumber business. It was while investigating the condition of milk in order to obtain clean milk for her small son, that Mrs. Edwards became actively interested in the duties of the woman citizen. Milk stations and clean-up day were the first objects of her concern. As a result of the systematic campaign which she started, the "Soo" was more effectively cleaned up than ever before. While at the Soo Mrs. Edwards was president of a large civic league and worked on the county prison and charities board. This work she has continued in Indiana, being secretary of the Miami county board of children's guardians of charities and correction.

When her husband returned to Indiana, and assumed the management of the Peru Chair works, Mrs. Edwards began to assist him in this business. From her desk she oversees the designing and decorating of the beautiful and artistic chairs made there, and answers frequent calls for lectures on home furnishing from the women's clubs and furniture associations. Mrs. Edwards says:

"Real business is the most fascinating thing in the world, and being in a congenial business with one's husband means that one's life is just as broad and full and satisfactory as it can be."

Mrs. Edwards will arrive in this city Friday evening, and will be the guest of Mrs. Fred McCulloch during her stay.

SPAIN IS BECOMING

NORMAL IS REPORT

Attempt to Stir Revolution

Put Down by the Government.

Paris, Aug. 17.—A dispatch from Madrid to the Associated Press says news from all Spain says everything is becoming normal. It was necessary to use cannon against the barricade made by strikers at Sabadell near Barcelona, resulting in the demolishing of four houses and the killing and wounding of several strikers. Two soldiers were killed and ten wounded.

All prisoners in the Madrid jail tried to escape. A struggle with soldiers occurred wherein there were a number killed and wounded on each side. It is said that revolutionists throughout Spain are plotting with prisoners for their escape, taking advantage of the disturbances.

Madrid has become more animated. Some vehicles and tramways are circulating. A dispatch to the Havas agency received here says the imprisoned strikers did not join in the prison mutiny. They are occupying separate quarters. The mutiny occurred at a moment when families were allowed to visit the jail. Shrieks of terrified women increased the confusion. The prison guards succeeded in subduing the mutineers and placing them in dungeons and the soldiers were not called in. It is announced that seven of the leaders of the mutiny were killed. A mutiny of convicts in the prison at Santon, caused by the quality of the food served to the prisoners, has been repressed.

BLOOMINGTON'S WAR MARKET A SUCCESS

Prof. Stockton's Plan Has Worked Out Well in College Town.

Indianapolis, Aug. 17.—In a bulletin soon to be issued by Indiana university, a story of perhaps the most remarkable war market in the central west will be told. The market—established as one of several similar experiments in combating the high cost of living by professors and others connected with the state university—already is in successful operation in the city of Bloomington. Residents of the town say that prices of food materials already have dropped appreciably and that with each successive "market day" the Bloomington housewives and boarding house keepers are patronizing the market street in greater degree. Those who bring produce to sell, now are disposing of their products between 5 o'clock and 3:30 o'clock in the mornings and, thus, are back on their farms almost before they know the day has begun.

How It Came About.

The first "small-town" market is the outgrowth of co-operation between citizens of Bloomington and the Indiana university department of economics and social science. Professor Frank T. Stockton, after a series of investigations, which included markets of various sizes, believed the idea of bringing the producer and consumer together in these war times could be worked out in the small town as well as in the larger towns. A local movement had been started in Bloomington with the idea of lowering prices of farm products, if possible. Professor Stockton and Professor C. M. Hepburn, of the Indiana university school of law, joined this local movement and the first retail market in Bloomington was started. It has been in operation some weeks and the prices of all foodstuffs sold on the market has been forced down in local stores 10 to 15 per cent, and in some instances, even lower.

Makes a Study Tour.

Indiana university had financed a field trip during which Professor Stockton studied retail markets carefully. Then he applied his knowledge to the Bloomington market. He drafted a market ordinance and it was adopted by the common council. Provision was made for a market advisory committee to oversee the market and study its problems. Professor Stockton was named chairman of this committee. The ordinance provided for a growers' or producers' market, to be held on Wednesday and Saturday mornings. A market space was set aside on one of the streets near the public square. The unique phase of the plan was that no charge was made for situations for sale. One of the city policemen was appointed market master. Thus the city was placed under no additional expense for its market. The ordinance was passed on Tuesday night. Little advertising was done and only four growers appeared on the market the next Saturday morning.

With each succeeding market day, however, sellers of garden truck drove in, and now from twenty-five to thirty wagons are in the "farmers' line" on Saturdays.

Have Saturday Night Market.

The market opens at 5 o'clock in the morning. Most of the dealers are sold out in two hours. A Saturday night market is to be started at once, thus giving the wage earners of Bloomington and vicinity an opportunity to reap more benefits from the market. The customers at the market get strictly fresh goods. They have wide choice in purchasing foodstuffs. The prices are so far below the local merchants that some of them already are seeking to undersell the farmers on the days when they bring their produce to market. The student boarding house keepers, however, are continuing to purchase all the farmers will bring in. The market advisory committee constantly is carrying on a campaign of education among the farmers, who sell on the market. It explains the necessity for correct weights, satisfactory prices and proper methods of preparing goods for sale. This committee also is spreading the gospel of conservation for war, urging drying of fruits and vegetables.

AMERICAN WOMAN'S BIT.

Stockholm, Aug. 17.—Mrs. Percy Proctor has asked the American minister, Ira Nelson Morris, to transmit to the state department her offer to place her villa near Mentone, France, at the disposition of the American army authorities in France. The villa has accommodations for forty men. It is Mrs. Proctor's idea that it should be used as a convalescent's home.

The fall term of the Fort Wayne High and Manual Training school will begin September 4. All pupils new to the high school who completed their eighth grade work in any other than the city schools are expected to confer with the principal before that date. He will be in his office from 8 to 11 every morning after August 20.

A Toronto newspaper says that a company making Portland cement at Durham, Ont., is now turning out as a by-product from the feldspar twelve to sixteen tons of potash daily. Feldspar rock is added to the limestone as a raw material for cement, and a process has been evolved for collecting the liberated potash. Both muriates and caustic products are produced, and while the market standard of the former is fixed at 80 per cent to the trade, the company asserts that it is possible to produce an article which is almost pure.

Juice of two lemons made into creamy lotion can be used to bleach, whiten and soften the skin. Make a quarter pint cheaply!

The beauty lotion which is becoming so popular throughout the country is easily prepared by anyone, and a whole quart of it doesn't cost any more than a small jar of the common, ordinary cold cream.

Add the juice of two fresh lemons to three ounces of orchard white and shake well in a bottle. Strain the lemon juice two or three times through a fine cloth so no pulp gets into the lotion, then it will keep fresh for months. Regardless of what price you pay or how highly advertised, there is nothing else really more meritorious in beautifying, softening and clearing

Patriotic Council Endorses Move to Enroll Boys for War Time Service.

APPEAL IS MADE IN BEHALF OF MOVEMENT

County Commissioners Can Appropriate Funds for Use of Organization.

Following the report of A. L. McDonald, head of the Boys' Working Reserve in this city, at a meeting of the Fort Wayne council of Patriotic Service at the Commercial club, Thursday night, the council adopted a motion endorsing the work being done in registering and enrolling boys from 16 to 20 in the reserve.

The following statement, signed by the seven members of the council, William H. Schellmann, Frank E. Bohm, J. Ross McCulloch, F. S. Huntington, C. R. Lane, Mrs. George P. Evans and Rev. Arthur J. Polson, is addressed to the people of this city:

"At a meeting of the executive committee of the Council for Patriotic Service, sitting also as the Allen County Council of Defense, we gave full consideration to the purposes and scope of the work of the Boys' Working Reserve and were convinced that it is a movement worthy of your support. We appeal to all young men between 16 and 20 years of age to register by Saturday night, August 18, and to enroll for the productive industrial service which our country so much needs, as shown by the appeal made by the president of the United States and of the governor of Indiana. The service is one for which the full usual wage will be paid and the enrollment for this service does not involve the enrolled member in any military obligation whatever or make it necessary for him to leave home or engage in any work for which he is not prepared and willing. At the same time the movement is supported by the purest of patriotic motives and the surest of usefulness. We have entire confidence in the directors, Mr. McDonald and Mr. McDonald and believe they are entitled to your confidence."

Only Two Nights Remain. As there are but two more nights for registration and enrollments, Friday and Saturday, the members of the council and the local director of the work are urging that all boys in the city who have failed to register up to this time do so immediately.

Much disappointment has been evinced at the small number of Fort Wayne boys who signed their willingness to work in compliance with the wishes of the government.

The four schools where the boys may register from 6:30 to 9:30 p. m. are the Highland, Hanna, Harmon and Jefferson, as has been stated before. Registration in the work is compulsory and means will be found to detect those who have failed to comply, it is stated. There seems to have been some propaganda circulated against the Boys' Working Reserve to the effect that it is of a military character, which, it is pointed out, is not the purpose of the organization.

Mr. Schellmann reported at the request of the State Council of Defense that Maj. John E. Miller be recommended as organizer of the Fort Wayne militia. The new company will be composed of men above the conscription age limit, who will receive pay for their time and work. Mr. Schellmann also reported to the council that he has been advised by the State Council of Defense that he has the legal right to recommend and the county commissioners have the right to appropriate money for necessary expenses of the Allen County Council of Defense. The committee decided to ask the county commissioners for $1,000 to carry on the work of the county council.

BROKE UP DISHES. Herman Ikemeyer Celebrates Release from Jail by Causine Trouble.

Herman Ikemeyer faced Judge Kerr in police court Friday morning on a charge of drunkenness. He was fined one dollar and costs with the promise that the next time he came back he would be sent to the state farm. This promise seemed to have little effect on Ikemeyer and he took several more drinks and went home and broke up all his mother's fine dishes. The patrol brought him to the station.

JOBS FOR 114. There Is Great Demand for Help at the Present Time.

Because of the war there is already a scarcity of help and as a result more calls are being received every day at the branch office of the state free employment bureau in the court house than can be filled.

Jobs were given to 114 during the past week, 104 males and ten women. Male applicants were given jobs as follows: Boys, 1; carpenter, 1; dishwasher, 1; drivers, 3; farmhands, 9; laborers, 86; machinist, 1; porter, 1; teamster, 1. Women were given the following jobs: Cooks, 2; day workers, 4; general housekeepers, 2; laundresses, 2.

DIVIDED IN THEIR VIEWS

Opinions of Officers as to Date of Departure Differ Widely.

WILL NOT LEAVE FOR TWO WEEKS SAYS ONE

Company E Given Strenuous Drill at Lawton Park Friday Afternoon.

Divers opinions are advanced among the shoulder strapped members of Company E and Company B as to the date of departure. Some are of the belief that the boys will be out of the city before another week goes by while one says it will be at least two weeks.

It is believed that when the order comes to move to the designated place that it will be several days before the boys will have to leave. This is to say that the order to move will be announced three or four days before moving.

Company E members were put through drill exercises on West Berry street Friday morning and in the afternoon the boys were taken to Lawton park.

Thirty-six more men left the Fort Wayne recruiting station Thursday evening as volunteers in the United States regulars. Nine men enlisted Friday morning for various branches of service in the Indiana national guard.

Mrs. Kirkland states that Wolf & Dessauer and the A. & I. Leather store donated the prizes; C. J. Loe donated his services for the printing of some matter; Kayser & Beade donated fruits to make the punch and Mr. Trier made a special price on the hall.

This announcement was made by Mrs. Kirkland. Meanwhile no news will be given out from company B headquarters. The sentinel at the door of the officers' room announced that the officers were "done with the newspapers."

Brother Improving. First Sergeant Fred C. Phinney, of the recruiting office, received word that his brother, Earl C. Phinney, who was terribly wounded in the attack made by the Canadians on Vimy Ridge is improving. The sergeant's brother is colonel of the 85th Overseas battalion of Canadian infantry.

Two Men Are Hit by Manhattan Limited on Pennsylvania at Noon.

(Special to The Sentinel.) Larwill, Ind., Aug. 17.—Hiram Long, 70, was instantly killed and his nephew, Hiram Long, Jr., 40, was perhaps fatally injured when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by westbound Pennsylvania passenger train No. 23, known as the Manhattan Limited, at noon Friday.

The junior Long sustained a fractured skull and internal injuries. He is being rushed to a Fort Wayne hospital, where an operation will be performed in an effort to save his life. There is little hope of his recovery, however.

The accident occurred at the Main street crossing. Samuel Mohr, a section hand, saw the machine approaching and warned them of their danger. It was on the north track and the junior Long was found beneath the wreckage of the automobile on the south track. He was unconscious. The senior Long was hurled a distance of twenty feet ahead of the car and was killed instantly.

The two Longs lived on a farm northwest of Larwill. The elder Long is survived by four sons and two daughters. His nephew is married, but has no children.

The meeting in the governor's office was to be attended by Lieut. Gov. Bush, Speaker Eschbach, of the house, and leaders of both parties, and a number of committee chairmen.

The cost situation is not the only question to be considered by the legislature. Since the Indiana national guard has been called for federal service the question of supplying a guard or state police of some kind has been given consideration. There has been little public discussion of that question to date, however.

WILL ASSIST SECOND LOAN

Commercial Club Asked to Help Advertise Next Liberty Bonds.

VALUABLE AID WILL BE GIVEN

President Miller Will Probably Attend National Convention.

Notice of the expected co-operation in the second liberty loan soon to be floated by the government by the Commercial club from the national chamber of commerce has been received by the president and secretary of the local organization. It being the first intimation had here of the proposed new loan and the campaign which the Commercial club would be expected to carry on.

The national body is advising that the local club, which is a member, send in requests for posters and window cards, which may be had without cost by filling out a requisition. Commercial organizations have been asked to transmit to their members the request that they have printed in red letters on the bottom of the address side of all business envelopes, and also on all letter heads, the following sentence: "Save for the second liberty loan."

The national chamber of commerce has just made an announcement which has been received by Secretary Bledsoe, of the Commercial club, of the coming convention at Atlantic City, September 18-21, called a "War Convention of American Business." The purpose of the national meeting, it is stated, is to consider the special problems affecting the business of the United States developed by the war.

In outlining the purpose of the meeting R. G. Rhett, president of the national body says: "Victory in the great struggle in which we are engaged depends largely upon the power, intelligence, speed of the industry of the United States; upon our ability to produce faster and better than ever before the things necessary for efficient warfare."

Some of the subjects which will be considered as stated in the announcement are: 1. The duty that business men owe the government in war; 2. How may the business of the country render the greatest service in winning the war; 3. Ways and means by which business may most readily adjust itself to the conditions produced by the war; 4. For what readjustments after the war must business prepare.

It is probable that President E. C. Miller, of the Commercial club, will attend the national convention.

MORE QUALITY SECOND TIME

Larger Percentage Obtained Out of Second Summons Than Out of First.

ORAL HEARINGS GIVEN IN SECOND

Boards Weed Out Slackers' Claims for Exemption from Service.

More soldiers were secured for Uncle Sam's new army from those summoned for examination on the second call than on the first. This was experienced in both the second and third districts.

District 1 and the country districts are hopeful that this rule will hold good in their cases. The country district will begin its examination of 250 more men next Monday morning.

In the meantime the four district boards are at work weeding out the slackers' claims for exemption.

Oral examinations of several claims in district 2 are being held in the evening. Thursday evening several men were given hearings and many more will be heard Friday evening.

Announcement has been made that while the boards had no special reason for believing that deceit had been practiced, the members would take drastic action should it be learned upon investigation that false affidavits or misstatements had figured in the presentation of an appeal claim. The appeal board convenes on the fifth floor of the Physicians' Defense building.

No Religious Exemptions. The county board will not discharge from service those who are eligible, but claim exemption on the ground of being members of religious organizations opposed to war. Eighteen young men have asked for exemption on this ground in the county district. Four of the eighteen affirmed for the reason that the church with which they are identified forbids swearing. A large percentage of the decisions of the local boards are being sustained by the appeal board.

Thursday's Results. The following failed to appear for examination when ordered before district board No. 2 and have been certified as soldiers:

Ernest C. Suchl, 1316 McClellan street. Charles L. Newhouse, 120 West Superior street. Henry A. Kibiger, 1342 Elm street. William A. Lemke, 120 East Lewis street. RUSSIA PLANS TO REFORM HER NAVY

Petrograd, June 23.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Major General Klado, chief of naval educational institutions, has prepared a radical plan of naval training reform, based on the doctrine that the recent granting of full political rights to fighting men of both services involves the infusion of a new spirit into their education.

The plan provides that the existing naval academy, school for marines, marine engineering institute and Sebastopol naval training corps shall all be directed from a central naval educational institution in this city. Other marine and naval schools will be united with the Sebastopol corps into a single naval school to be situated in Sebastopol. A radical reform is that, for these schools, all persons will be eligible who have had secondary education. There will be no privileges for nobles. Thereby the career of naval officer will be opened to Russians of relatively humble position and means.

The ultimate aim of the reform is that naval education after the war will be conducted in a pacifist and anti-militarist spirit, so as to prepare for the expected reduction of armaments.

Bad Attack of Diarrhoea Cured.
"About two years ago I had an attack of bowel trouble and was in a serious condition when I began using Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. J. Rogan, Fairport, N. Y. "This medicine relieved me at once and after taking three or four doses of it I was cured." People are always pleased by the prompt cures which this remedy effects. The recommendations of those who have used it have done much to make it the most popular medicine in use for bowel complaints.—Advertisement.

PERFECT DEVICE THAT CUTS FLOATING MINES

Rotterdam (Netherlands, Aug. 17.—Experiments with a newly invented device intended to cut the anchor chains of floating mines and to prevent them from coming in contact with a vessel passing through a mine field, have been conducted here, it is claimed, with success. The contrivance was invented by Rear Admiral Goedhart of the Dutch navy. It was affixed to a steamship of the Batavier line for a series of tests. The vessel steamed through a field of harmless mines with the result, it is asserted, that every mine which barred her course automatically was pushed aside and its anchor chain cut. The invention consists of a steel prolongation of the ship's bow, which is easily hoisted or stowed away. It extends eighteen feet under the water and is designed to push the mine anchoring chains or cables aside to a distance of fifteen feet from either side of the vessel. At that point the cables or chains are clipped and the liberated mine rises to the surface fifteen feet from the vessel's side. Having once been passed safely, the plan is to explode the floating mine by shooting at it.

After the clipping of the chain of mine the apparatus is intended automatically to become ready to deal with the next.

Pains in the Stomach and Bowels.
Owing to the great distress which this disease occasions, every family should keep at hand the proper medicine for its relief. Mrs. L. B. Sinks, Centerville, Ill., writes, "My father has kept Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house as long as I can remember, and when he has taken it, to my knowledge it has given him the desired relief."—Advertisement.

RUSSIAN GIRLS TELL HERE OF WORK AS POLICE IN PETROGRAD

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 17.—The most interesting figures in the country today to American boys and girls—interesting to parents too—are Margaret and Vera de Longuine, who have come to Duluth from Petrograd after serving as soldier-police in Russia. Vera, who is only 14, was a messenger for the war department, and carried a revolver and bayonet. Margaret, two years older, had similar duties of even greater responsibility and peril. They had offered the new revolutionary government their services as girl scouts. "To wear a hat in Russia," said Vera, "is to be one of the upper class. So, to avoid attracting the attention of peasants, women doing work like ours carry handkerchiefs to substitute for hats." The two little rebels, who have seen some of the most thrilling scenes of the war upheaval and who prophesy Russian aid to beat the Kaiser, are to complete their education in America.

ANNUAL REUNION OF
OLD SETTLERS IS HELDRev. Folsom is Principal
Speaker at Gathering at Columbia City.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Columbia City, Aug. 17.—The seventeenth annual Old Settlers' Day was attended here Thursday by nearly 5,000 people from all parts of the county and Indiana. Rev. Folsom, of the Plymouth Congregational church, of Fort Wayne, was the speaker of the day, and the welcome address at 11 o'clock on the band stand in the court house square on which the old settlers were gathered, was given by Mayor Frank L. Myers, president of the association this year. Several contests were staged for the amusement of the crowd, and the day's program was one of merriment, enjoyment and reminiscence. In the evening, between 6:30 and 7:30 o'clock, a play festival was given by members of the chautauqua company that appears here next week. Prizes were awarded the old settlers, as follows: Oldest resident of the county, Rebecca Betlock, of Troy township, born June 19, 1830, silver loving cup; longest consecutive resident, Abraham Elder, of Columbia City, born 1834, came to county January 1838, silver loving trophy; oldest "John," registered, John Smalley, of Larwill, born June 28, 1833; his prize was a cane; oldest "Mary," registered, Mrs. Mary Sherwood, of this city, who received a shawl for a prize; she was born July 20, 1835; youngest John, the son of Leroy Chapman, prize, doll; he was born Jan. 23, 1915; youngest "Mary," registered, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wynkoop, of this city; prize, doll; first soldier to enlist, Chauncey B. Mattson, enlisted April 25, 1861; longest service in civil war, Peter V. Gruesbeck, who served 4 years, 1 month and 21 days; he would also have won the prize for being the oldest soldier, were it not for rules preventing two prizes falling to one person; this latter honor was awarded to Isaiah Johnston, born December 10, 1835. Registering of old settlers was conducted in the corridors of the court house. The officers for next year are: Henry E. Romey, president; Elmer E. Stites, vice president; George F. Harrison, secretary; Cleon Foust, treasurer; R. H. Maring, historian; J. H. Shultz, keeper of the museum. During the year past there were 155 deaths among persons over thirty years of age, or who have resided in the county thirty years or longer.

Columbia City Brief Items.
The Whitley county exemption board Friday and Saturday will announce the names of several more drafted men who have been certified to the district board. The board will not exempt married men without children, but will discharge from service men with families. Forty-two men have already been certified to the local board and the following sixteen others have been certified: Aden B. Schanep, J. A. Pentz, Adal White, Earl R. Erdner, Clifton Newcomer, Kessler R. Beers, Will Oberkier, Firmer Born, Earl Galtz Jones, Ervin O. Kerch, already enlisted; William H. Allen, already enlisted; John R. Wilson, LeRoy Walker, Paul Wilcox at Allentown training camp. Ralph E. Gates, graduate from the Michigan university law school, and son of Attorney E. E. Gates, of this city, has been enrolled as ensign in the navy department as assistant paymaster, and will receive his commission soon and go on a battleship. Mrs. Martha Hill, of Thorncreek township, taking treatment for rabies at the Pasteur Institute at Indianapolis, having been bitten by a mad pet dog, is now thought to be beyond danger. Over 100 persons attended the annual Magley reunion, held Thursday at the Tri-lake resort. The L. M. Meiser realty agency Thursday sold the residence property and two lots owned by the heirs of the late Daniel Twomey and located on the south side to Frank Leer for $950. Carl F. Wendel, farmer, of Wabash county, and Miss Gladys, daughter of John Bentz, of Cleveland township, were wedded Thursday forenoon at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. T. Bean at the M. E. parsonage in this city, and will reside in Huntington county. The mother of the groom accompanied the couple. Sentinel Want Ads. Pay.

Nitrogen, that most precious of fertilizing elements, may be present in a soil in a condition unavailable as plant food. Merely as an illustration it might be full of fine leather scraps or ground leather. In peaty soils such a condition often exists, though rich in nitrogen. During the five-year period ending in 1914 Georgia surfaced 6,364 miles of her roads. This is at the rate of more than four miles a working day.

There Are 2 Reasons
For This Extraordinary Sale

First-- We are remodeling. We are putting in a new front, which will be the finest in this section of the state. We are putting in new floors, new ceilings and new lighting fixtures. We must paint and paper throughout the entire store. We must have enough room to shift our stocks around in order to provide a place for the workmen. To secure this room we are forced to dispose of some of our stocks regardless of price.

Second-- For years it has been our custom to hold a midsummer sale and dispose of the stock that was to be replaced by new furniture purchased at the furniture exhibitions in Grand Rapids and Chicago during July. We intend to continue the custom this year, but we expected that our remodeling would be completed before these new stocks began to arrive. When it wasn't we were up against it! We couldn't take care of the workmen and our old stocks at the same time. The additional new stocks were simply out of the question unless we provided a place for them by disposing of the old. Consequently we were forced into making reductions which are not justified by the costs on the new stocks. But we simply must have the space. You can profit by taking advantage of this condition if you will.

Davenports Are Just One of the Features

We cannot quote prices on every item included in this sale, but these davenport prices are typical of the reductions that we have made on our entire stock.

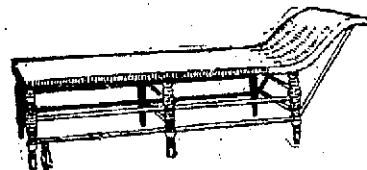

Perhaps no other article of furniture adds more to a small home than a Bed Davenport. It provides a useful addition to the living room and increases its attractiveness at the same time. It eliminates the necessity of an extra bedroom outfit when you have guests, for it can be converted into a comfortable bed by a simple operation accomplished in a second. It furnishes a cool downstairs sleeping place on extremely hot night. It supplies a convenient bed in case of sickness and eliminates the necessity of other members of the family running up and down stairs to give the patient proper attention.

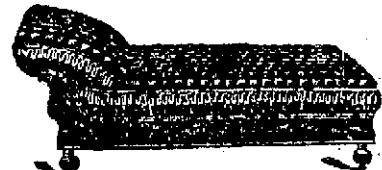

While we quote just a few of the prices they will serve to show you what you may never be able to buy so cheaply again, for davenport prices are going right up, and you will have to pay the increase on stock just purchased.

"YES, RUSSIA WILL FIGHT!"

tion of another. It is a slander and a libel and ought to be dropped, buried and forgotten.

There are no braver men on the face of this earth than the great majority of the Russian soldiers. Ask anyone that has seen them in action, ask those who saw the marvelous and almost incredible heroism displayed by the Russian army in the famous movements of the summer of 1915. Ask anyone that can tell you of the masses of Russian soldiers that have gone unarmageddon to the best equipped troops in the world and have fought them with bare hands.

To hear the uniformed casting reflections upon the valor of such men or sneering at the Russian nation as "yellow" is a hard strain on patient tolerance.

The real reason for the apparent halt and hesitation on Russia's part since the revolution is something very different. What it is I hope to be able to make clear in the articles that will follow this, and I think you will agree before I am through that harsh criticism of Russia by any American is rankly unjust and that what the real situation calls for is the utmost sympathy but not a word of blame.

Beast by thousands difficulties and dangers, problems and perplexities such as no nation has ever faced, all kinds of difficulties of which you in this country have never heard nor suspected nor dreamed, Russia has kept on with the most amazing fortitude and resolution, and when you come to know the whole story you will be filled with wonder that she has done as well as she has.

None but a very great people could have pulled out of that hole.

But for today I want to talk about our own country.

You think the question whether Russia will fight depends upon Russia. Let me tell you something.

It depends far more upon you.

You have no need to worry about Russia so far as she herself and alone is concerned. You have more reason to worry about the United States.

I come home to find that at the worst possible moment that the devil himself could devise, this nation is listening to a horde of traitors, German agents, selfish politicians and chicken-hearted peace-at-any-prices babbling a lot of stuff loaded with the deadliest peril for Russia and for America.

I see members of congress that unobscured introduce resolutions for a peace conference or demand a statement of the terms of peace or otherwise to Potsdam's distant work.

I hear of "peace conventions" and

WOMAN DIES FROM HURTS

Panic in Street Car Costs

Life of Miss Emma Schmidt.

SIX OTHER WOMEN

SUSTAIN INJURY

Stampede Results When

Fuse Blows Out at Jefferson and Lafayette.

One woman is dead and six others are suffering injuries as a result of the panic which occurred on an East Main street car at 10 o'clock Thursday night. The dead woman is Miss Emma Schmidt, 1119 Erie street.

The accident occurred when a fuse blew out of the car at the corner of Jefferson and Lafayette streets. The front part of the car became enveloped in flames and the passengers immediately began crowding for the rear platform. The injuries to the women were caused when they were pushed off the platform by those coming behind.

The injured are:

Mrs. William Heinley, 1402 East Wayne street, injuries to left leg and side.

Mrs. William Lohman, 813 Canal street, bruised about the body.

Miss Gertrude Mahrenke, 615 East Jefferson street, severe bruises.

Miss Clara Schack, 1001 Madison street, cut and bruised about head.

Mrs. Emil Wolfe, 1132 Grant street, bruised.

Mrs. A. Schoenherr, 1219 Erie street, body bruises.

No Cause for Alarm.

It seemed to be a case of imaginary danger, rather than real, as the first was over immediately after the first flash. Conductor Herman Knell was in charge of the car, and although he tried to stop the crush, the women were pushed off the platform as they struggled to get out. The accident happened as the car was making the turn at the corner and the car was able to continue the run on its own power.

Miss Schmidt was rushed to the Lutheran hospital, where an operation was performed by Dr. H. A. Duemling and Dr. E. E. Morgan. Although the injured woman rallied from the shock, she became worse after midnight and died shortly after 2 o'clock.

Passing automobiles took the other injured women to their homes. The car was in charge of Conductor Herman Knell and Motorman Ray Osborne. Stationmaster Fred Fry, Patrol-driver Bauck and Patrolman Pattee investigated the accident.

Several men who were in the car were standing near the front and when the flash occurred they made a rush toward the rear, it is reported. Miss Schmidt was pushed from the car, falling on her head and sustaining a fractured skull.

The dead woman was employed in the art department of the Steele-Meyer company. She was a member of the St. Paul Lutheran church and a graduate of the parochial schools. She is survived by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt, three brothers, Charles, George and William, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Koonitz, of Goshen, and Mrs. Edith Root, of this city.

COURTS OPEN TO SOLDIERS.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Country club it was decided to throw the tennis courts open for the use of the soldiers who are home on a furlough from Fort Benjamin Harrison. They are urged to make free use of the courts, which are in fine shape just now. They will not be available next week owing to the fact that the state tournament will be on at that time.

His accounting of food supplies and the shipping situation was affected by the submarine warfare was also regarded as indicative of Great Britain's safe position and strong attitude.

It was thought here that one of the objects of the premier's speech was to sound out public sentiment preliminary to the formal responses to be made to the pope's note. It is likely that public men in other allied countries will follow suit.

SAID TO HAIL FROM FT. WAYNE

The Nelson family came here recently from Fort Wayne. The father and husband was employed on construction work at the new conscription cantonment camp here.

There are two James Nelsons in the Fort Wayne city directories of 1917 and 1918. Both are men of excellent repute and both are still resident here. At this time there has been no success in identifying the persons involved in the Chillicothe tragedy as late dwellers in this city.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

French along the Steenbeke river but met with no success. On the Alsace front the Germans made vigorous assaults near the Calmar plateau and east of Cerny. Shattered by the terrific artillery fire of the French infantry formations were were swept back with heavy losses. On the Verdun a German stroke on a front of two kilometers between Caurieres wood and Bezonvaux. At points the attackers succeeded in gaining a foothold in the foremost French trenches, but subsequently they were driven out of the greater part of these positions.

British aviators yesterday dropped several tons of bombs on military establishments in Belgium. The French brought down two German airmen in Belgium and forced two others to land back of the German lines.

Another winter campaign is regarded as inevitable by Lieut. Gen. Korniloff, Russian commander-in-chief.

In an interview at Petrograd he also predicted operations on a vast scale along the Rumanian front, and hinted at important developments in the north with the possibility of combined land and naval actions.

WOMAN'S TONGUE A PROBLEM.

Seattle Wash., Aug. 17.—Officials of the police department were undecided today as to what steps they would take toward the suppression of further public speeches by Mrs. Kate Sadler, socialist speaker, who was arrested last night and later released to an angry mob by the arresting officers. Mrs. Sadler had not been located early today and the police were inclined to ask the advice of the federal authorities before seeking her further.

State Council's Act.

At a conference here yesterday of representatives of councils of defense of thirteen middlewestern states, resolutions were adopted recommending that in states where proceedings are already on foot to fix the price of coal to the ultimate consumer, such proceedings should continue to their final conclusion. The resolution also declared that no attempt should be made to bring about a conflict between federal and state authorities in regard to fixing coal prices. A force of investigators for the federal trade commission has been at work on the books of Illinois coal companies for some time for the purpose of obtaining figures on the cost of coal production and it was said today that data from twenty-six mines already has been compiled.

The note suggests autonomy for Armenia, a re-arrangement of the colonies and the return of Alsace-Lorraine and Trent and Trieste to their respective nationalities. "Is it possible the central powers will consent to make peace imposing upon them such sacrifices and obliging them to pronounce, as Lloyd George said, the word 'restoration'?" asks the Corriere d'Italia.

The Giornale d'Italia says the central empires will not be obliged to announce their conditions of peace which the pope will communicate to the allies. An important feature of the papal note is that it is the first document of the Holy See addressed to the Italian government since the fall of temporal power. "It is the first document asking Austria to evacuate Italian territories after the note Pius IX addressed to the emperor of Austria advising him to return Italian lands."

The text of the official note first appeared here in the Osservatore Romano, issued at noon. The Vatican organ is printed usually late in the evening. Thus the publication at noon today was a great exception which only occurred once before, in Nov. 1907, when the Vatican answered the note of M. Briand, then French premier, about the law of separation. The entire press reproduced the papal note expressing the opinion that the allies have not beforehand agreed to the papal condition.

GERMAN OPINION DIVIDED.

Amsterdam, Aug. 16.—The Kreuz Zeitung of Berlin, a copy of which has been received here, says sympathy with the pope's wish for peace must disappear when it is seen that he has united himself with such conditions as restorations and no indemnities.

The Berlin Tagelichter Rundschau considers that the nature of the peace outlined by the pope must compel the central powers to refuse the offices of the pontiff. This newspaper says it fears the affair will have an unhappy influence not only in Austria but among the Catholics in Germany.

The Koelnische Zeitung reserves judgment on the proposal until the full text of the pope's note is obtained. Nevertheless, it considers the proposal to enter into negotiations on the basis of the pontiff's program should not be rejected. This newspaper asserts that it is not aware of the German government's attitude but that it believes logic prescribes that the government in conformity with its previous attitude should follow the path indicated by the pontiff.

AS BRAZIL SEES IT.

Rio De Janeiro, Aug. 17.—The press generally abstains from comment on the peace proposals of the pope. The

CORN PRICES RALLY ON CHICAGO BOARD

ON CHICAGO BOARD

Absence of New Peace Developments Assists the Market.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Corn prices rallied today owing more or less to absence of any important fresh developments pointing to a likelihood of peace. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1/4c to 1/2c lower, with December at $1.13 1/4 to $1.13 1/2 and May at $1.10 1/4 to $1.10 1/2, were followed by an ascent all around to slightly above yesterday's finish.

Export interests were said to be buying wheat here and at other points where obtainable and advantageous terms for immediate delivery, trading in the September option appeared to have entirely ceased, and no comparison with yesterday's latest price, $2.09, was feasible.

The close was firm, 1c net higher at $2.01 September.

The close on futures was nervous at 1/2c decline with December $1.12 1/2 and May $1.09 1/2.

Oats manifested a good deal of strength because of big export sales.

Provisions averaged higher with hogs.

Principal States Her Side of Case

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 14, 1917. To the School Trustees of the City of Fort Wayne.

Gentlemen:—As I advised the board yesterday, I was very much surprised to learn that a few people in my school district have secretly complained to this board with reference to my relations with the Washington street school. Charges, I am informed by you, were made orally, but I have been unable to learn what these charges are. The betterment of the Fort Wayne schools has been my life's work, and I felt that I was entitled to be confronted with the charges made, even though I am not permitted to confront the various people who made these charges, whatever they may be. I was advised, when I was first appointed principal of this school that there were four or five people objected on the ground that they desired a man in this position. I was not aware that there was any objection to me personally until just recently, and, as I have above stated, I have been unable to learn what these objections are, although I have repeatedly asked the board to require such charges to be filed.

Upon investigation, I have discovered that these various persons, with the assistance of a few of the teachers, have circulated numerous false reports among the patrons of this school. This has been so openly done by these teachers, that it must necessarily have been called to the attention of the board. At least one of these teachers is an applicant for my position.

If there are any charges that can be made against me in the conduct of this school that may, or could, be termed charges, of sufficient weight or importance to cause them to be investigated by this board, it seems to me that I, above all other persons, should be fully advised as to what these charges are and who makes these charges. The responsibility of the falsehoods that have been recently circulated with reference to me, in this school district, should be placed where it belongs, and the charges made, as well as the persons who make them should, in justice to me, be disclosed by this board.

You advised me that alleged petitions have been filed, signed by numerous persons, in which it is stated that "there is a feeling of dissatisfaction and a spirit of dissension" in this school; that there is a feeling of unrest among the teachers and pupils, and therefore it would be to the advantage of the school not to reappoint me as principal of this school. These alleged charges, if they can amount to charges, are frivolous for the reason that if any such condition exists you and your superintendent, above all other persons, would know of the same. If teachers are permitted to secretly make false charges against their principal, either to this board or to sympathizing patrons of the school for the purpose of securing advantages for themselves and the principal is censured and dismissed without an opportunity being given to confront him accusers, what else could be expected but dissension in the schools?

There has never been any dissension in this school, this board well knows; there has never been any unrest among the pupils in this school, as this board well knows. I stand squarely upon the record made by me in the management of this school for the three I have been principal, and I defy criticism. If my position depends upon the friendship and support of some patron of this school, who desires and demands a reward or special attention therefor, then I want to advise this board that I would not be principal of the school. My acts should be judged by one who is competent to determine whether my conduct has been efficient or inefficient, and not three or four women who either desire to or may pose as the particular guardians of the welfare of the pupils of this particular school. I know personally that outside of six or eight persons who signed the alleged remonstrance have been secured through misrepresentation and fraud; that outside of these few the question as to my conduct with reference to this school had never been called to their attention and that each and every one of them will acknowledge that they have no objection whatever to me or to my policy, and were induced to sign this petition as heretofore stated.

My capability is admitted. Some say that I am a strict disciplinarian. This is admitted by me. If this is the ground for my removal, then I am helpless. If forty years of hard service in the interest of the schools of Fort Wayne and the results obtained thereby in any manner appeals to this board for fair treatment, then I demand that the persons who have secretly maligning me make their charges public and file them with this board. I am at least entitled to know what charges are made and who makes them, and without any desire to reflect upon the integrity of this board, I respectfully ask that I be treated by you at least as well as a common criminal in our courts, and be confronted not only with the charges made, but by the persons who make the charges. I want to assure this board that these charges made will be thoroughly investigated, and due publicity made of the results.

Yours very truly,
EMMA L. ARMSTRONG.

OPPORTUNITY FOR EXEMPTS TO SERVE

United States Needs Military Bodies for Duty at Home.
(By Publicity Committee State Council of Defense, George Ade, Chairman.) Indianapolis, August 17.—Military companies consisting of men exempted by the new conscription law, to replace the national guard of the several States, when the latter organizations enter federal service, are wanted by the United States government for a very special and important duty during the period of the war. Their duties will be altogether local in character and will involve a minimum of sacrifice in view of the nature of the work that these enlisted will be called upon to perform. For some months members of the national guard regiments have been stationed at railroad bridges, in public buildings, at shipyards, railroad terminals and all important work. They have prevented incendiarism and the destruction of necessary public utilities by alien enemies.

The withdrawal of these drilled troops requires an adequate substitute. For the danger from spies and traitors is ever present. The need of armed military forces in case of fire, flood, cyclone or tornado, strikes and riots is apparent to everyone and especially during a time when the public mind is of necessity unsettled because of outside influences. The further fact that disciplined troops will tend to inspire patriotism in all the people, but more especially in the younger generation, is regarded by the government as highly important. A proper respect for law and order is essential to the greatest possible individual efficiency in the prosecution of the war.

Such are the reasons for federal legislation providing for local defense companies, the formation of which is recommended by the Indiana State Council of Defense, to every county council of defense in the state.

ment of Agriculture, stated this morning that the average production for the previous five years (1911-1915), was 353,000,000 bushels, which represents a fair crop. This year the indications are that there will be a crop of 407,000,000 bushels, which is 100,000,000 above the average.

This is equal to one bushel extra for every man, woman and child in the country. In order to avoid waste, officials of the department of agriculture suggest two ways of taking care of this large increase. First—All housewives are urged to use potatoes as far as possible as a substitute for breadstuffs. Second—To preserve the potatoes for winter use by home storage. These measures, it is stated, will not only use the potatoes to advantage, but will save wheat.

Arrangements for the transfer were made by long distance telephone. Two events are to be on the day's card—a dealers' race and a 110 lap professional contest.

A leading food expert says that nutriment and food value considered, dried fruits and vegetables are superior even to canned products.

The gas range makes the drying process simple and easy.

Line a wire dish drainer with heavy wrapping paper and spread the fruits or vegetables over it in a thin layer. Light the oven burner for five minutes, then turn it very low, place the drainer in the oven and leave the door open. Keep the heat at this point eight to ten hours, turning the vegetables once or twice during the drying process. Some things take longer to dry than others, but the amount of gas used in drying even the largest ones is very small.

Try this process in your own gas range.

Our canning booklet, "Prepare," contains complete and helpful information about canning and preserving.

ROSE OUTLASTS WAR; WINS SOLDIER BRIDE

Pretty Romance of Pretty
Girl and a Canadian
Fighting Man.

(Staff Correspondence.)

London, Ont., Aug. 17.—The boys of western Ontario were marching to war—in those first days when Canada stretched her right arm across the sea to help her mother country.

Home folks and visitors crowded the city of London, Ont., to bid the soldiers goodbye.

Stanley Snelling was a private in the Eighteenth Western Ontario battalion. No one had been there to say goodby to him. He was thinking perhaps it was best that way—no heartaches, no regrets.

Miss Caroline D. S. Feutz and Private Stanley Snelling.

He looked up through the dust rising from the marching feet and saw a girl in an automobile ahead to his left, so close he could touch her as he passed. She had a big red rose in her hand.

As he came abreast she put it to her lips and tossed it to Private Snelling. "Bring it back to me," she said, "and—"

Private Snelling snatched off his cap. He looked at the girl in the machine. She leaned out and their faces were close. Then he said, "I will."

One night at St. Etienne, France, after a day in which apparently hell yawned and belched up its torments, Private Snelling lay in a conquered German trench, fumbled in his shirt, pulled out the remnants of a red rose, faded, and found in it an inspiration to stick it through and somehow win back to western Ontario.

That happened more than once, as the Canadian troops swept onward. And finally, after one of the later engagements at Ypres, they took Private Snelling back to Canada, wounded.

When they cut away the first aid bandages at the billeting station in France and started to take his belongings to a locker, Snelling roused himself and yelled out:

"Hold on there! I want that rose. It stays with me."

In New Paltz, N. Y., a girl read the story of the sentimental Canadian who had carried a red rose two years in France until it could not be told from a ball of tissue paper.

Then there was a story from New Paltz, and a picture of Miss Caroline D. S. Feutz, and Private Snelling saw it. He's nearly well, now, and he knows the railroad fare to New Paltz.

Summer Complaint.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."—Advertisement.

FORT WAYNE'S POISON FACTORIES

are being shut down and transformed into first aids to Nature
by the people of Fort Wayne for the production of Good Health through the daily use of

Whole Grain Wheat

The Breakfast-Dinner-Supper Food
PREPARED READY TO EAT

EVERY PERSON suffering from constipation is operating a veritable poison factory that is infecting the blood with toxins which are tearing down, undermining and seriously affecting the health and mental and physical well-being.

When food is not properly assimilated and when the organs of elimination are hampered or disordered, the partially digested and decaying food in the stomach and intestines produces poisonous matter that is absorbed by the membranes and the tiny blood vessels therein, to be carried throughout the entire human system.

Constipation is indicated by headaches, biliousness, lassitude, bloating, gas on the stomach, nausea, loss of appetite, a constant tired feeling, irritableness, melancholia, morbidness or "the blues," absence of ambition and energy, worry, lack of self confidence, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, vomiting, coated tongue, and bad breath.

The victim of constipation finds little to enjoy in life. His daily existence becomes a ceaseless round of pleasureless effort. The whole system becomes weakened and susceptible to attacks of disease. The victim of chronic constipation drags through life the hopeless prey of ills that sap his energy, destroy ambition and prevent the normal enjoyment of things intended by mother Nature for the rational enjoyment of mankind.

Whole Grain Wheat corrects constipation because of the bran it contains and because of its hygroscopic function—its affinity for water which it absorbs from the digestive canal, causing it to dilate, distend or expand the intestines, both large and small, thereby increasing or enhancing the peristaltic movement, resulting in the regular emptying of the intestinal tract.

It must be remembered that Whole Grain Wheat is a food—not a medicine. It banishes constipation simply because it digests so perfectly, and mechanically aids the digestion of other foods. Read on—and learn more about this truly wonderful food.

Buy Whole Grain Wheat today. Get it from your grocer. 256 Grocers in Fort Wayne have it. It is ready to eat as it comes from the can.

The Best Body, Brain and Brawn Builder

From babyhood to old age the human body is constantly wearing out and constantly renewing itself.

The human body contains sixteen essential chemical and mineral elements. It cannot survive nor carry on its normal functions without every one of these sixteen elements being constantly present in the proper proportion. The human body cannot rebuild without them.

Your body obtains these sixteen elements for rebuilding and replacing solely from the assimilation of food. If they are not in the food you eat, they cannot be taken out of it by the body.

Only two foods known to man possess all the sixteen chemical and mineral elements required daily by the human body to sustain normal nutrition and bodily growth. These two foods are whole milk and whole grain wheat.

Man can rise superior to the wear and tear of modern life with its nervous tension and bodily strain so long as he has a perfect food, and Nature has put every one of the needed elements of a perfect food into wheat and given it to man for his use and consumption.

Born of the sun and soil, gathering sweetness and strength from the rains and dews, garnering the precious minerals from the earth in the tiniest atoms, a grain of wheat comes to the feast of man fit for every life throbbing, carrying within itself the elements making possible perfect assimilation and perfect elimination, thus tending to develop and build up the body tissues, to make brain and brawn, bone and sinew, healthy blood and sound nerve cells.

But man must take wheat as it is. He must take it whole—in its entirety; not over-milled or refined; not demineralized, not devitalized, not denuded of any of its life-giving elements.

No Other Food Like Whole Grain Food

Whole Grain Wheat was originated and perfected by Dr. Albert Babendreer, a successful physician and chemist. It is totally different from any other food product on the market. It is in itself a perfectly balanced ration, alone capable of sustaining life indefinitely. Its preparation is probably the most important development in foods in the past century.

Whole Grain Wheat is a food for every member of the family—for the strong man, the weaker woman, the growing child. It meets squarely and satisfactorily the demand from the human body for substantial nutrition.

Whole Grain Wheat brings back the color to faded, anemic cheeks. It puts vim and vigor in nerve and muscle. It makes for healthy skin and beautiful complexion. It arrests decay of teeth by supplying lime and silicon for tooth structure. It makes all foods taste better because it feeds the starving cells with life-giving elements that whet the appetite.

It assists you to avoid doctors' bills and makes you more fit and efficient for the struggle of life. It changes your viewpoint from depression to exaltation and good humor, because it removes the cause of depression and despair—constipation.

And—best of all, Whole Grain Wheat is tasty, delicious, appetizing and wholesome. Eat it as you do bread or potatoes, at every meal—three times a day. You will never grow tired of it. It tastes good anywhere, any time, any place.

Whole Grain Wheat is put up in hermetically sealed sanitary tins, keeping it fresh and palatable until wanted. You get ten full ounces, net weight, for ten cents—six ample servings, and every serving supplies all the nutritional elements, not merely one or two or some of them.

AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL.. By Gene Ahern

CAMOUFLAGE AGAIN.

Now, patrons, this camouflaging. Isn't such a new. It's been cavorting around these quarters for some time, but it's never been labeled. The butcher puts his wrists on the scale with the round steak, and the camouflaged wrists toil up also as round steak. The grocer camouflages the berries to look like a healthy boxful by putting the big boys on top and it looks like a quart box but it's been camouflaged; the bottom has been given a lift. The summer time is harvest time for camouflaging. I saw a man in a vacation Wilbur and Tessies—y'know, around the beaches, etc.

A Wilbur hung up in noisy togs camouflages himself to some Tessie as a regular devil millionaire's son and she vice versa, and, when the twin weeks are went neither one lets loose on the camouflaging. He hikes back to reading gas meters and she hikes back to the glove stall.

CAMOUFLAGE SOME MORE.

What a merry bunch of camouflagers we all are. The first of the month when bills come and collectors knock the front door some of us are camouflaged so that we are out to the collector.

Some camouflages themselves so that the other people just envy their easy selling and wish they could afford a car and a maid, but most of the time the car isn't paid for and the house is mortgaged to get it and they just have their head out of the water when it's calm. Great stuff, this camouflaging. Restaurant hash is another gag that gets camouflaged to a frazzle. Gristle, leftover meat from uneaten orders, etc., come under the nom de plume of "choice bits." Water is another article that's camouflaged much, as milk, oyster stew, circus lemonade and many other fine works.

THE PROFITS OF CO-OPERATION.

Last year the selling cost of the exchange was 4 1/2 cents per box, or 1 1/2 per cent. on the delivered value of the fruit.

Advertising expenses, 2 1/2 cents. Sub-exchange expenses, average, 91-100 of one cent a box.

The whole cost of the service to the grower, 7 and 66-100 cents a box. Of this the salaries of managers and all other employees of the exchange amounted to 75-100 of one cent a box. The cost of 77 selling agencies, with all the machinery, ran only to 2 32-100 cents per box.

The grower today gets the difference between the delivery price and 7 66-100 cents per box, as against 10 cents a box when the middleman ruled him. And the consumer pays little if any more now than then.

Pesky Bed Bugs

A MILLION BED BUGS. Just think a 25c package of the new golden chemical F. D. Q. (Pesky Devil's Quinine) is enough to make a quart and enough to kill a million bed bugs, no matter how large they may be, where they come from, their age, color or sex, and at the same time leaves a coating on their eggs and prevents hatching. CURE THIS OUT. This new chemical can be had at any first-class drug store. A 25c package makes a quart of F. D. Q. and will go farther than a barrel of old-fashioned bug killer. Don't let anybody impose upon your intelligence by offering you something else. Insist on what you ask for, then you'll have what doctors prescribe. KILLS FLEAS ON DOGS. It's fun to see the fleas drop off your pet dog. KILLS CHICKEN LICE. No use for your chickens to have lice. A 25c package mixed makes a gallon of chicken lice killer. Your druggist has it, or can get it for you. Owl Chemical Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

ty, the last named, had one of his legs shot off at the second day's fighting of the battle of Shiloh. Lieut. Col. Philip Grund, of West DeWald street, has the honor of being ranking surviving officer of the civil war service.

Many Fort Wayne veterans were in the famous 100th Indiana, known as the persimmon regiment, which saw the hardest kind of fighting during the war. Commander William Kennerk, of Sion S. Pass post, O. A. R., served three years during the rebellion in the ranks of the Seventy-Fourth Indiana.

DETAILS OF A CAUSE

CELEBRE IN OLD ROME

War Advocate Takes a Terrible Vengeance on an Active Pacifist.

ROME, Aug. 17.—The fashionable crowd at the cafe on the Corso Umberto were gazing up at the huge screen on the building opposite, where pictures of the celebrities of the day—Cordona, Sonnino, Joffre, Wilson, Lloyd George—were being thrown on the screen. It is the chief diversion these hot afternoons. Joffre was popular and Wilson had his admirers. Then came the picture of a man with a great beard. This caused tremendous laughter. But the very climax of demonstrative approval came when the picture of the thin-faced man with a workman's cap on his head was thrown on the screen. There was a huge ovation for this strange face.

"And who is the man with the beard?" asked the American visitor.

"Why that is Maffie. Is it possible you don't know Maffie?"

"And who is the man in the workman's cap?"

"That is the carpenter, Tordelli. You don't mean to say you haven't heard of Tordelli. They are the great Italian characters of the day."

Maffie is a member of the Italian chamber of deputies, who made a speech in favor of peace, saying it was really not Italy's interest to carry on the war. Tordelli was for war, and felt that the peace speech must be rebuked. He accordingly waylaid Maffie on the tramway as he came from the chamber. Maffie had an enormous beard which was his pride and best known characteristic. As Maffie stepped on the car, Tordelli deftly operated a pair of scissors before the surprised deputy knew what was happening. Then with a shock of beard in his hand Tordelli disappeared while Maffie was left beardless.

Tordelli was arrested and his trial soon began. All Rome became interested, the question of peace and war divided sentiment into two camps. When the trial came all Italy awaited the fate of the carpenter. He produced the beard at the court, and it was duly entered by the trial as an exhibit. Thereupon Maffie applied for the return of the beard, but the court held it had been possession of the state. Tordelli suddenly became a popular hero, as defender of the war, while Maffie had champions for his cause and his beard. Their pictures are the features of all screens.

Bilious Attacks.
You wonder what upset your stomach. Never felt better in your life yesterday—now you have a bad bilious attack. Cure that first, then look for the cause. Keep quiet, abstain from food for one day, take three of Chamberlain's Tablets. Drink plenty of water. This will clean the fermenting food and bile out of your stomach, tone up your liver and move your bowels. You will soon be all right again. If you have these bilious attacks at irregular intervals, abstain from coffee and red meats and you may avoid them.—Advertisement.

RESUME LOSING WAYS; CHIEFS DROP SECOND TO MUSKEGON

Allen and Warmoth, New
Addition, Engage in Pitchers' Contest.

The fast pace set by Dayton is the only thing that has kept Fort Wayne from going into the lead in the race for the cellar championship of the Central league. The Chiefs maintained their usual gait yesterday by dropping another game to Muskegon by the close score of 3 to 2 and while the home club put up a game fight while it lasted the result was the same old story. Despite the fact that Dayton did not play yesterday, thus not having a chance to lose, Fort Wayne could not outst the Vets from last place.

Two sidewheelers, Allen for Muskegon, and Warmoth, the Chiefs' latest acquisition in the pitching department, engaged in a hurling battle which the new addition to the force might have won had his teammates laid on a little heavier with their bats. With one out in the second Hunter singled. Kirby walked and took second while Hunter was being run down between second and third base. A double by Niederkorn scored Kirby. Allen was out, ending the scoring for Muskegon.

The Chiefs tied the score in the fifth inning. Warmoth drew a pass and went to second on a sacrifice hit by Breaux. Warmoth went to third on Miller's out and scored when Herndon made a bobble of Smith's easy one toward third base. Smith was caught at second trying to stretch his scratch hit.

The Muskies scored again in the seventh. Hunter singled to center. Breaux made a fast play, but his throw to first was not accurate. Kirby drew a base on balls. Hunter took third on Niederkorn's sacrifice, Kirby being held at first. Allen fanned and Hunter scored on a throw to second to break up Kirby's steal. Herndon struck out.

Each side scored in the eighth for the final out of the game. A high fly between Gloeckson and Kelly resulted in neither one of them getting it and Brubaker got on with one down. Brennehan flew to Siegfried. Spas singled to right and Brubaker scored when Gloeckson juggled the ball. Hunter flew out.

The locals got their second run of the contest in their half of the eighth. Breaux hit the first ball pitched for a two-bagger. Miller followed with a single and Breaux went to third. Miller was out trying to steal second. Smith sacrificed. Breaux crossing the plate. Hoffman struck out, ending the Chiefs' scoring.

Warmoth let the Muskies down hard in the first half of the ninth, only three men facing him. The Chiefs tried to put over the necessary run or runs and stave off defeat, but it was no use. Siegfried singled and reached third on two successive outs. Roberts struck out and left Smith stranded, ending the game.

ENTRIES FOR TOURNEY CLOSE SATURDAY, 6 P. M.

Many Fast Players Will Be Seen on Local Courts
Next Week.

Entries are rapidly being made for the state patriotic tennis tournament which opens at the Country club Aug. 20 and continues until Aug. 25, owing to the fact that the list will be closed Saturday at 6 p. m. Much interest has been aroused over the coming meet here and already prominent stars throughout the state have been entered.

Among those who have either entered or may be expected to enter are some of the younger stars developed at Indianapolis in the last two seasons who have been having things their own way in all tournaments so far held at the state capital. Among those who will add interest to the tournament if they play are Fred Bastian, junior tri-state champion, and Johnny Hennessey, who recently won the Indianapolis city championship. These two youngsters, neither of whom are over 18, are two of the fastest in the state, and will add much interest to the tourney here if they play. Jack McKay, also of Indianapolis, has sent in his entry fee and will be seen on the local courts again.

The tournament committee is composed of the following: Fred E. Hoffman, chairman; Dan B. Nide, J. Ross McCulloch, Hugh G. Keegan and Roger J. Fisher, with any of whom entries may be placed.

"BUCK" WANTS TO GET BACK. Chicago, Aug. 17.—George ("Buck") Weaver wants to get back and help his teammates win the American league pennant. His finger was broken in the last series between Washington and Chicago, and he was told that he would be out of the game for about three weeks. Buck thought the matter over and said he guessed he'd be back there as soon as the club started its last swing around the eastern circuit. The accident which put Weaver out occurred when Alsmith slid into third base.

WOMAN'S TENNIS TITLE TO GO TO THE BEST GUESSER.

MARY BROWNE

MOLLA BJURSTEDT

(By Paul Purman).

When Miss Bolla Bjurstedt meets Miss Mary K. Browne for the world's tennis championship Aug. 20 one of the greatest games of wits ever seen on American tennis courts will be played.

Victory will fall to the star who is able to outguess and outwit her adversary. These two champions are about evenly matched so far as the mechanical points of the game are concerned.

At a slashing drive game the Norwegian has no equal. If Miss Browne should play her in that style Miss Bjurstedt would have pretty clear sailing. And that is just what the Californian will try not to do.

Her own game is one of deliberate science, of placing her returns in the most difficult parts of the course. This is difficult to do against one who has the driving ability of Miss Bjurstedt and to win, it will be up to Miss Browne to return easily.

Honors between the two starts have been playing for the Red Cross, but in the games Miss Browne has won she has compelled her opponent to abandon her slashing style and play the sort of a game made to order for herself.

Miss Bjurstedt has always had trouble handling a slow ball with a short lazy bound. The power of her stroke is apt to make her drive into the net or out of bounds.

Miss Browne is at her best using the slow, easy service and returns and in using them she has Miss Bjurstedt off her balance, as the Norwegian champion is robbed of a great deal of her effectiveness when she does not use her speed.

TY COBB STARTS EPIDEMIC OF HOME RUNS AT POLO GROUNDS

When Ty Cobb hit a home run off Urban Shocker at the Polo grounds Aug. 3 he started an epidemic of four base clubs which perhaps has never been equaled on one ball field in the same length of time.

Game after game produced one or more homers, even a pitcher breaking into the column, and the epidemic resulted in the New York Yankees grabbing off half as many homers in a week than they had in all the rest of the season.

In the week eleven four-base wallops were collected at the New York park. In one game the only runs made were counted by home runs.

Cobb started the epidemic Aug. 3 and the next day collected another off Caldwell. The next day did not produce any homers, but on the next Wallop Papp and Home Run Baker each added one to their strings. Both were made off George Cunningham, of the Tigers.

Aug. 8 was a red letter day. In a double-header between the Yankees and Indians four players but circuit smashes. Ray Fisher, a pitcher who hardly knew what a home run was, getting the first off Bagby. In the second game Graneau and Smith each got to Caldwell for circuit drives and later Caldwell came back with a homer off Coveleske.

The next day Tim Hendry connected for a circuit drive and the following day Speaker and Smith each did their bit.

Philadelphian, 66, Walks 44 Miles

Edward Payson Weston isn't the only long distance hiker who can boast of covering hundreds of miles after passing his sixtieth milestone.

Herbert Welsh, of Philadelphia, has just finished a walk of 440 miles from Philadelphia to Sunapee, N. H., taken as a vacation recreation. Welsh is 66.

"Walking is the greatest exercise in the world," Welsh declared after finishing his hike. "Instead of feeling worn out after my long hike I am in great condition and feel that my vacation has done me a world of good."

Welsh finished the hike in nineteen days and slept in the open all of the time.

In the later years of his life the mathematician, Euler, was almost totally blind. Then, and probably earlier, he carried in his memory a table of the first six powers of "series of natural numbers up to 100." It is related that on one occasion two of his students attempted to calculate a non-verging series. As they progressed they found disagreement in their results. These differed by a unit at the fiftieth figure. The question was referred to Euler, who decided to make the calculation. He did this mentally, and his result was found to be correct.

Sharkey's Staging a Finish Fight in Court

Mrs. Tom Sharkey and her husband, whom she has sued for divorce.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 17.—All is not well along the matrimonial Wabash of Tom Sharkey, ex-heavyweight pugilist. Sharkey's wife has sued him for divorce and temporary alimony has been granted the wife.

Mrs. Sharkey claims Tom was cruel to her. Tom says another woman gained influence over his "little girl" and kept her out late at nights. Sharkey, who is 23 years older than his wife, has known her since she was three years of age. They separated last July.

Sharkey has been acting as manager for his former mighty ring foe, Jim Jeffries, in the saloon business here. Testimony indicated that Sharkey was being paid $50 a week by Jeff, who spends practically all of his time on his dairy ranch at Burbank, a suburb of this city.

BROKEN ARM KEPT SCHIFF OUT OF WAR

Chicago, Aug. 17.—All that prevented enlistment of Johnny Schiff, the Californian featherweight as boxing instructor at the Great Lakes naval training station was a cauliflower ear, a fractured nose and a broken arm.

"Fuh," said Johnny, "if they're going to reject boxers for little things like that they'll have a hard time getting experienced pug." He said that the arm has healed and was better than ever. The Californian served a year as boxing instructor of the 11th overseas battalion of Canada. He broke his arm in the course of duty and was given an honorable discharge. Otherwise he might have shared the regiment which, he says, was all but wiped out in the fighting on the western front. Schiff was in the hospital when the regiment sailed.

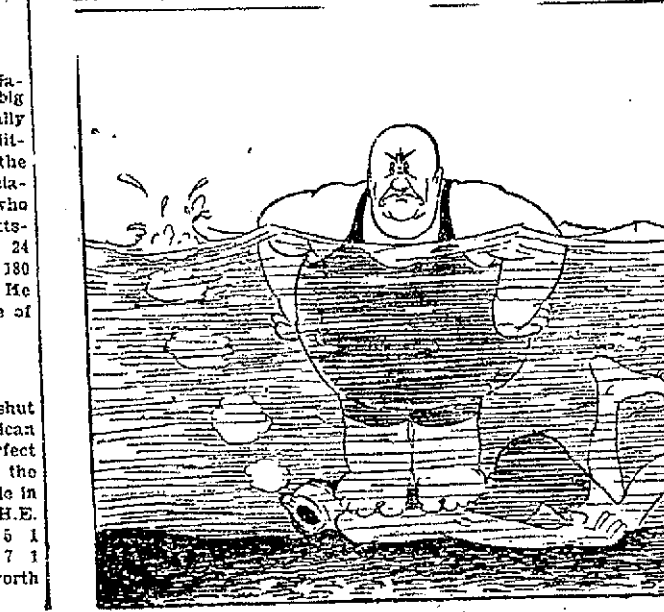

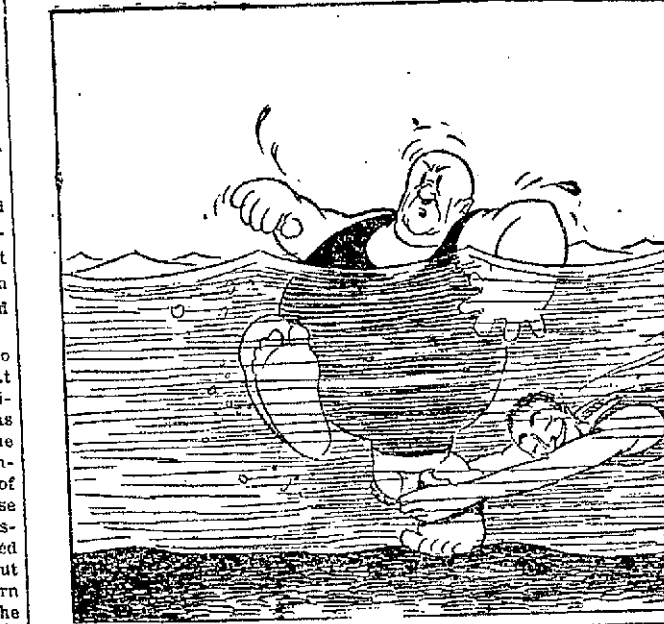

PIRATES BUY FLYNN.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—The Pittsburgh Nationals have purchased Don Flynn, a big right-hand outfielder, who occasionally goes into the box and can pitch a creditable game. Flynn was bought from the Galveston club in the Southern association, according to President Dreifus, who was in the city during the recent Pittsburgh-Chicago series. Flynn, who is 24 years old, six foot tall and weighs 180 pounds, is noted as a clean-up hitter. He will report to the Pirates at the close of the Southern association season.

Word has been sent to him to come here for medical examination. It is understood that he will ask the exemption board to allow him to be examined in Denver as he is anxious to finish the season. He wrote home that he would not claim exemption, saying: "Why should I stay here when the rest of the boys are over fighting in the trenches?"

EMERGENCY MONEY IN NORTHERN FRANCE

Amsterdam, Netherlands, Aug. 17.—Emergency money has long been circulating in large quantities in occupied northern France. It is all of paper and similar material, varying from stiff cardboard to parchment. Here it is printed in highly artistic, ornamental style; there it merely bears the communal stamp, with the mayor's signature. General Quartermaster Hahndorff is now endeavoring to introduce some order into the situation, according to a frontier correspondent, and publishes a list of the approved notes. All paper money below 25 centimes (5 American cents) is invalid. Non-approved notes must be exchanged before the announced date. Notes of the towns of Bapaume, Ham and Novon, taken by the entente armies, naturally fall in the category of those which must be withdrawn. A penalty of from six months to two years' imprisonment is prescribed for the counterfeiting, circulation and use

"THAT COON WASN'T WITH ME" SAID ANNA

But Charles Davis, Also Colored, Pleads Guilty to Charge.

A conflicting story was told in police court Friday morning in regards to the happenings of events as they transpire in a house on Holman street Thursday night when two men and two women, all colored, were arrested. Anna Kinney and Charles Davis were charged with furnishing liquor without a license. Steve Folsom was held as a witness.

On the stand the Kinney woman said: "That coon wasn't with me," but Charles told the story differently, as did Steve Folsom. The men declared that Charles borrowed $2 from Steve. The Davis lad, who said he was only 18 years of age, pleaded guilty.

The case against the Kinney woman and the Davis lad were continued until Saturday morning, both being held under a bond of $50. The Folsom man was held under a bond of $25 as a witness.

Grace Stewart declared that she did not sell any liquor to the men, but both the men stated that they bought a bottle of beer each for 30 cents apiece. Grace drew a fine of $75 and costs.

Leroy and Cecil Dickerson were arrested Thursday night on Calhoun street on a charge of operating an automobile with the muffler open. Their cases were continued indefinitely in police court Friday.

William Donlin, charged with vagrancy will re-appear on Aug. 20. Gust Eik, a drunk, was let go. James Hodges, charged with drunkenness, said he had enlisted in the army and went out celebrating before leaving town. His case was continued until Saturday. In the meantime an investigation will be made as to his enlistment.

Herman Kanevsky drew a fine of $1 and costs on a charge of drunkenness but his mother paid the fine and he was let go. $2.00 ties, $1.00; $1.00 ties, 50c; 50c ties, 25c during our Great Half-Price Sale. PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO. Writing Tablets, 2 for 5c at Sentinel office
